

Held After Lock Shot From Door Moore Caught In Pataukunk Chase

Chased by authorities along Mill Road, Pataukunk, Wednesday afternoon after he shot the lock off an upstairs door leading to the home of his wife, Earl Winfield Moore, 58, of Pataukunk, was apprehended and charged with disorderly conduct.

State Police Corporal N. G. Lecakes of Ellenville, who figured in the chase with Deputy Sheriff Earl Conro and other authorities, said Moore recently served a 30-day jail sentence for third degree assault.

Pleads Innocent

Arraigned late Wednesday before Justice of the Peace Abram Smith on the disorderly conduct charge, Moore pleaded innocent and Judge Smith remanded him to the Ulster County Jail for hearing on August 28. Bail was fixed at $500.

Mrs. Olive Moore of Pataukunk notified authorities Wednesday afternoon that her husband appeared outside her home with a loaded deer rifle. She also said he had shot the lock off an upstairs door in an attempt to gain entrance. Mrs. Moore operates a boarding home for aged people.

Takes Off in Car

The sheriff's office was also notified, and Sheriff Claude Bell, with Deputy Conro and other attaches, sped to the scene with Corporal Lecakes. When the corporal arrived he saw Moore driving away in a car. Lecakes and Conro gave chase. The police vehicles soon overtook Moore's car. Moore leaped from the auto and ran through the woods, pursued on foot by Lecakes and Conro. He was captured without a struggle. On the front seat of Moore's car, the corporal and deputy found a loaded 30-30 deer rifle. Examination of the gun by Lecakes disclosed the gun had jammed.

Gun Warrant Issued

Whether Moore attempted to fire the gun during the police chase, or whether the weapon jammed as he tried to unload it, authorities did not know.

Corporal Lecakes said a warrant issued by Judge Smith charging Moore with having a loaded gun in his car in violation of the State Conservation laws, has been filed at the sheriff's office. It will be executed after disposition of the disorderly conduct charge.

1960 Fire Parley Plans Under Way, Will March Here

George Majestic, recently elected president of the Ulster County Volunteer Firemen's Association, presided at the August meeting held at the Shandaken-Albany Hose Company firehouse, Tuesday evening. There were 35 companies represented with an attendance of 75 members.

During the meeting President Majestic announced that the 1960 annual convention would be held in the Gardiner area, and since the Association would be observing the 25th anniversary of its organization in Kingston the parade would be held in Kingston.

Further Discussion Due

Majestic said the Ulster County Volunteer Firemen's Association was organized in the City of Kingston at the Veterans of Foreign Wars dugout and it was felt the 25th anniversary parade should be held here. Further plans will be discussed at future wallet containing his life savings, about $1,816, troopers said.

Later, Iacovella went to the grill and sometime after that he returned to the cellar and discovered the wallet missing. He notified State troopers. Corporal Lecakes investigated.

The corporal learned that a beer truck had stopped at the grill for a pickup and delivery. He later located the truck at the Log Cabin Bar and Grill, where

Cement Workers Approve Contract

HUDSON, N. Y. (AP) — The 13-week strike by approximately 300 workers at the Universal Atlas Cement Co. is over.

William A. Hazell of the State Mediation Service and Federal Mediator John A. Rooney said Wednesday night a two-year contract approved by Local members of the United Cement, Lime and Gypsum Union, provided for a two-cent an hour wage increase. The contract also calls for a two-cent adjustment retroactive to May 1, and 10-cents an hour more next May 1.

Current wage scales were not available.

The union struck May 22 over local issues. Its contract with Universal Atlas had expired April 30.

Search Is Renewed For Quake Victims

WEST YELLOWSTONE, Mont. (AP)—Three light tremors jolted the southwestern Montana earthquake area Wednesday night and early today. There was no damage. The shocks awakened residents.

The shocks, coupled with a driving rain, hampered efforts of searchers to renew the hunt for possible additional victims

Officials Check Route Scheduled For Royal Visit

Officials yesterday previewed the entire route to be taken by Her Royal Highness Beatrix, Princess of the Netherlands, through Ulster County on September 18.

The officials making the trip included J. A. von Houten, counsel of The Netherlands embassy; Leon Michel, special assistant to the chairman of the Federal Hudson-Champlain Celebration Commission; Sgt. J. H. Harrison of the New York State Police; John Ford, security agent for the State Department; Tom von Alphen of The Netherlands Information Service and Richard J. Hughes, assistant to Michel.

The group was accompanied on the tour by Harry Rigby Jr., representing the State Commission on Historic Observances and Albert Kurtz, chairman of the Ulster County Committee for the Hudson-Champlain Celebration.

Work Out Details

The communities visited included Highland, New Paltz, Hurley and Kingston, in the same order the visits will be made by Crown Princess Beatrix. At each stop specific arrangements were worked out with local representatives, the details of which will be confirmed in writing.

In commenting on the preliminary tour Kurtz said that the officials were pleased with the outlines prepared by local committees. "Some changes had to be made," he said, "but in general the proposed plans met with approval. In Hurley the visit must be changed from the field next to the church to the schoolhouse."

Subject to Final Approval

The approximate time schedule of Her Royal Highness Beatrix tour, still subject to final approval pending the travel time checked yesterday by Sgt. Harrison, will be as follows:

of the Monday night quake, which touched off major landslides.

The tremors were the latest in a series that has continued since the major shock and sent small landslides down the mountain slopes.

WEST YELLOWSTONE, Mont.

(AP)—A big force of searchers moves back into the still-shaking earthquake area of southwestern Montana today to renew a perilous hunt for more victims.

Landslides are raining rocks and dirt down the mountain slopes.

Will Avoid Landslide

The ground parties will search above and below Hebggen Dam, focal point of the hardest hit area in Monday night's shocks.

Searching crews are made up of men from the Civil Defense Organization, sheriff's office, U.S. Forest Service and volunteers. They said they would not attempt to dig into the 50-million-ton landslide below Hebggen Dam until the comparatively slight tremors subside.

Bodies of eight quake victims have been recovered from the devastated mountains and canyons. Reports from survivors indicate the toll may rise to 12. They told of seeing a car with a man and a woman and a crippled boy buried by an avalanche.

Missing Woman Alive

A woman reported by Sheriff Donald Skerritt to be missing and presumed drowned was found alive Wednesday night. Grace Miller, about 60, whose lakeside home was washed away in a wave of water propelled by a landslide, had walked 15 miles to a ranch.

Coroner Charles E. Raper says he believes the body of Mrs. Thomas Stove of Sandy, Utah, is in the Madison River. He reported the family car and her belongings have been found in the stream. Her husband was killed.

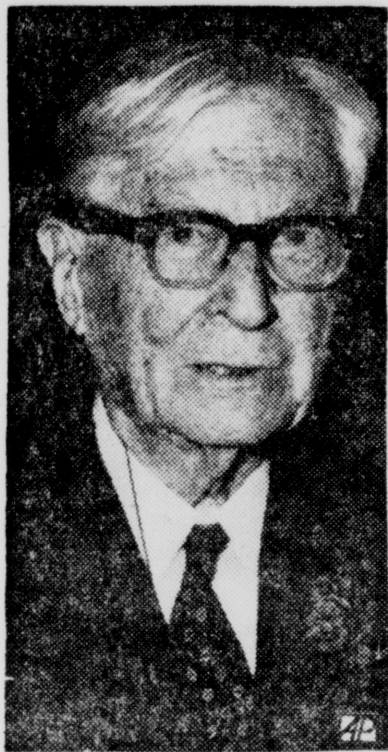

Officials have said they believe more bodies may be found by digging into the landslides and probing Hebggen Lake and the Madison River.

Will Check Waters

Skindivers are planning to go into the lake when the muddy water clears. They will check a report that two persons drowned in a car submerged in dirt and water.

All of the known survivors—about 300—have been moved out of the quake area. Some roads, buckled and twisted by the quake, have been made passable by the use of bulldozers.

Many highways in the western part of Yellowstone National Park were blocked by landslides and the damage there was expected to run into the millions of dollars.

Five Railroaders Escape Serious Injury Today in Run-Away Train Leap

Supports Positions, Two Claim U. S. Steel Data Brings Comments

WASHINGTON (AP) — Striking steelworkers and the steel industry both claimed today that a new government report bolsters their positions.

Maintaining its hands off policy in the 37 day old steel strike, the government Wednesday released figures showing that steel profits, prices and wages have been going up for years.

Urges Greater Efforts

Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell made public the 4,000-word background report on the steel dispute. He said neither side has been doing any intensive bargaining and urged greater efforts until a settlement is reached.

But Mitchell declined to make any recommendations on where there should be some backing down in the deadlocked negotiations—and which side should do the retreating.

"There are no conclusions drawn (from the report)," he said. "The responsibility for a settlement of the strike rests upon management and labor."

However, he made it clear that the public has an interest in the dispute which each week is costing 300 million dollars worth of production and 70 million dollars in wages.

Not Serious Yet

Mitchell told several hundred newsmen at a news conference that the effect of the strike so far has not been serious from a national standpoint. Increases in employment, output per man hour, steel prices, thereby forcing up steel prices. He said the increase of output per man hour in steel was lower than in the national economy as a whole.

Says Profits Lag

Cooper said the report "shows also that steel profits as a return on investment have consistently lagged behind those in other industries—even before taking account of the necessity for making up large deficiencies in depreciation allowances."

David J. McDonald, United Steelworkers' president, said Mitchell's report "presents a positive picture of the steel industry."

He said the report "shows also that steel profits as a return on investment have consistently lagged behind those in other industries—even before taking account of the necessity for making up large deficiencies in depreciation allowances."

Group Will Appeal School Bus Ruling

The decision of the Kingston Consolidated Board of Education not to modify its position on school bus transportation will be appealed to Commissioner of Education James E. Allen Jr. by the Rural School Area Committee.

That decision was made at an open meeting Wednesday night at the Town of Esopus municipal building in Port Ewen. Attorney Arthur B. Ewig, who had been retained by the group which is seeking to have the bus transportation schedule liberalized, was instructed to take steps today toward an appeal. Those attending the meeting were apprised of the facts upon which the appeal will be made and Attorney Ewig was expected to file the appeal papers today with Commissioner Allen.

Holds to 1-2 Miles

The present policy of the board of education is to transport elementary pupils residing one mile or more from their school and high school students who reside two or more miles from school. The board contends this is the standard which is set down by the State Education Law.

Deliveryman Held For $1,800 Theft, Was in Overalls

Charged with the theft of a wallet containing more than $1,800 from the cellar of the Casino Bar and Grill on Route 209, Kerhonkson, Tyrone Jones, 21, of South Fallsburgh and Greensboro, Alabama, was arrested Wednesday on a first degree grand larceny charge.

Arraigned before Justice of the Peace Herbert Poppel, Jones waived preliminary examination and was remanded to the Ulster County jail to await grand jury action. No bail was fixed.

Have Wild Ride Over Hilly Area

Diesel, Cars Just Miss River Ending

Five veteran railroaders, holding grimly to the nerve-racking job of trying to brake or slacken the swirling, downhill "run-away" ride through Rondout of a heavily loaded, seven-car freight train, narrowly escaped serious injury as they jumped clear just before it crashed into cars on the Kingston Point spur this morning.

Brake failure of undetermined source, they said, began at the upper Hasbrouck Avenue underpass or "tunnel" at Delaware Avenue, as the train, pulled by a Diesel "yard" engine began its winding, downhill roll at about 7:30 a. m., on the lower end of the Catskill Mountain branch of the New York Central Railroad.

Clears 10 Crossings

It cleared 10 grade crossings without mishap, gaining speed over most of the awry, downtown run, but its speed was cut as it reached the level spur extending into the Kingston Point area. There it crashed into four cars near the end of the line, slewing them from position and derailling the engine and four cars of the train.

Nelson Ruoff, 68, of Lanesville, conductor, was treated at Kingston Hospital for a head laceration and minor hand injuries, and Frank K. Tomaseski, 44, of 95 Elmendorf Street, brakeman, was treated for a slight cut or scratch of the forehead.

Others in Crew

The others of the crew, Engineer John W. "Jack" Kolts, 68, 40 Esopus Avenue, Town of Ulster; Charles Colvin, 69, of 39 Nicholas Street, Town of Ulster, freeman, and Monson Clearwater, 49, of 33 Hayes Street, brakeman, were examined at the hospital but apparently suffered no injuries of note.

"It was some feeling, rolling like that," said Engineer Kolts. "I just bore down on the whistle. We were lucky we missed everything at the crossings."

The men said they were so bent on trying to do everything possible to stop the train that they could give no guess at peak speed other than the feeling that it was much above 35 miles an hour.

Thought They'd Tip Over

"I thought we were going to tip over at the Hasbrouck Avenue crossing (near Mill Street), said Fireman Colvin.

Engineer Kolts marveled over the fact that large trucks, some of them oil tankers, which he had seen many times at downtown crossings, were clear of the tracks all the way.

Police noted, however, that a truck carrying a large conduit piece to the North Street plant of the Hudson Cement Corp., missed being struck by only about 25 feet at the lower Hasbrouck Avenue crossing. The unit, 17 feet high and 100 feet long was being moved through the city with a police escort.

Alerted by Solomon

Farley, Another Named

Harness Post Goes To Buffalo Sheriff

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — Gov. Rockefeller today chose an Upstate sheriff, Robert A. Glasser of Buffalo, to head the state's new harness racing commission.

He also appointed old-line Democrat James A. Farley, of Manhattan, and a veteran Republican, Spencer B. Eddy of Saratoga Springs, to round out the three-member agency.

The commission will take over Sept. 1, from harness "czar" George P. Monaghan, whose job was abolished after he was accused of unethical conduct.

Of his three appointees, Rockefeller said:

"Their eminent reputations for integrity and ability and the wide respect and esteem in which they are held assure New York State of the most responsible and scrupulously faithful administration and supervision of harness racing."

Glasser, the Republican sheriff of Erie County, and Eddy, a longtime member of the State Public Service Commission, will assure GOP control of the commission.

As chairman, which is a full-time job, Glasser will be paid $20,000 a year. His term runs to Feb. 1, 1962.

Eddy and Farley will serve on a part-time basis, each at $15,000 a year. Farley was appointed for a term running to Feb. 1, 1964, and Eddy for a term expiring Feb. 1, 1966.

Rockefeller said Eddy would resign from the PSC to take the

10,000 Visit County Fair on Opening Day

With ideal weather prevailing Wednesday upwards of 10,000 persons attended the 1959 Ulster County Fair sponsored by the Ulster County Agricultural Society Inc. at Forsyth Park.

"Without exception," said Albert Kurtz, secretary of the society, "last night's crowd was the largest ever to appear at the park." Another record crowd was anticipated today. The second day of the fair opened at 10 a. m. and will close at 5 p. m.

Early this morning county residents who had horses to enter in the many events scheduled appeared at the park to prepare their horses for the exhibits. The horse show was divided into two sections. The total available premiums was listed in the official program at $718.

Judging of the horses was based on the type, manners, soundness and general confirmation, 75 per cent and 25 per cent on handling and equipment. John Roosa, Kingston, is superintendent of the horse events, and Mrs. Phyllis Milliken is assistant superintendent.

The hot weather evidently prompted thousands of area residents to wait until last night to visit the fair grounds. One official said the entire park "was packed" with a record crowd.

Many fair visitors brought basket lunches and spent the entire day on the grounds, while others made a tour of the exhibition tents and left after viewing the exceptionally fine displays.

Acting Police Chief Robert F. Murphy and several department members were on duty at vantage points in the park and reported no unusual incidents. The park was closed to motor vehicles.

HIGHLAND NEWS

UD Society Displays Afghans and Pictures

HIGHLAND—The UD Society has on display in the window of the Central Hudson Gas and Electric office on Main Street, two of the 144 afghans which has been a project of the society for many years.

During the early years donations of unused yarn or raveled from garments, was used. Miss Laura Harcourt for many years had crocheted the nine by nine inch blocks together and stitched the letters of the society on a corner block. These had been given to invalids locally. After Castle Point Hospital became established visits and afghans were given to bed ridden patients there.

In the past few years Mrs. C. Imbrie Richards has taken over the work done by Miss Harcourt and through her, afghans have been taken to patients at Golden Hill and the Infirmary at New Paltz. The supply of yarn donated, gave out and now the society have a collection at each meeting which goes toward the purchase of yarn.

In connection with the showing are four pictures of the society taken on anniversary celebrations. On April 4, 1921 the 25th anniversary was celebrated by dining at Hotel Stuyvesant, Kingston, with a picture taken at the Fair Street entrance to the hotel. Ten years later, 1931, at a meeting held with the late Mrs. Philip Schantz, a picture was taken in her yard.

The late Mrs. Mame Elting Williams was hostess at the 50th anniversary luncheon in the private dining room of Smith Brothers Restaurant, Poughkeepsie. The last picture observed the 60th anniversary and was taken following luncheon at the Old Fort, New Paltz. The society observes the organization date each April when the next year brings the 64th birthday.

Meeting socially for many years members became aware of the need for new uniforms for the firemen and sponsored a play given in Feeter's Hall, 1899, which netted $100. Side-walks were needed in the village and the society was instrumental in sponsoring minstrel shows and the receipts started the first sidewalks.

There have always been 25 members and the officers serving this year are: Miss Lillian Johnston, president; Mrs. Joseph Mellor, Mrs. Doria MacGrath, vice presidents; Miss Eliza Raymond, secretary; Mrs. Abram Rhodes, treasurer.

Along Capitol Corridors

By CHARLES DUMAS
Associated Press Staff Writer

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — New York Democratic leaders may try to push Robert F. Wagner for the party's vice presidential nomination next year.

The New York mayor's prospects for the post were discussed at a closed meeting of Upstate county chairmen this week.

State Chairman Michael H. Prendergast told the meeting that the vice presidency might be the major objective of the New York party at next year's national convention.

None for Top Post

He pointed out that the state would not have a candidate for the party's presidential nomination this time, so it could use its big bloc of votes exclusively to bargain for the No. 2 spot.

At the last two conventions, W. Averell Harriman was the state's favorite-son candidate for president. But he failed both times to gain the nomination and now is considered out of the running.

After Harriman's failure at the 1952 convention, New York leaders offered Wagner for the vice presidential nomination. But their hastily organized effort never got off the ground.

Thus the New York delegation was rebuffed twice.

Charles W. Hummell
CHIROPRACTOR

Tel. FB 8-4871

"This time," Prendergast told the Upstate leaders, "we're going to have to be reckoned with."

Better Chance Now

Prendergast and Tammany Leader Carmine DeSapio believe Wagner will have a better chance next year because of a heightening interest in placing a Catholic on the national ticket.

This interest stems from the fact that Sen. John F. Kennedy, a Catholic, is making an undeclared but determined bid for the Democratic presidential nomination.

If Kennedy makes it, it's not likely that fellow Catholic Wagner would be nominated, too. But if Kennedy were denied the nomination and it went to a non-Catholic, party leaders might want to nominate a Catholic for vice president to soothe ruffled feelings.

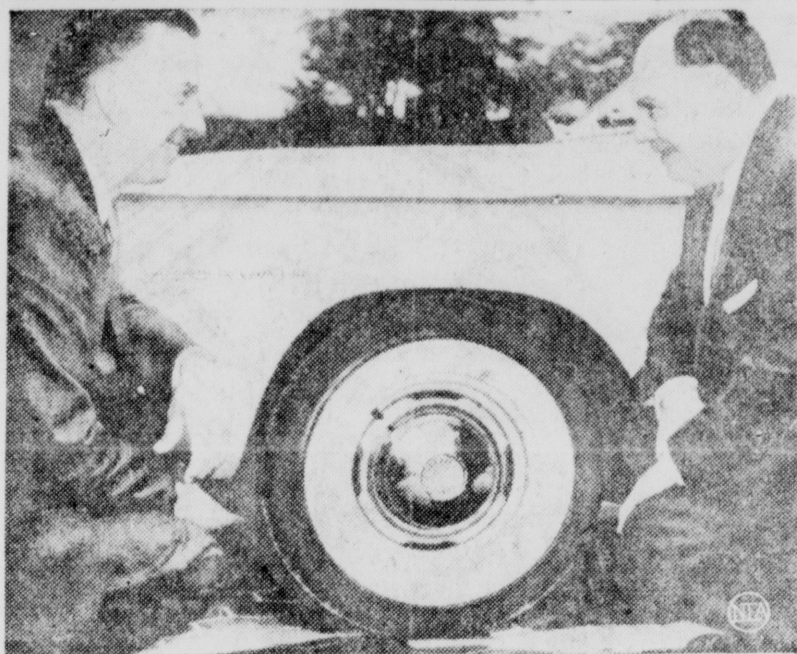

There has been some talk of Republicans nominating a Catholic for vice president, too. Labor Secretary James Mitchell is the chief object of such speculation.

Still Friendly to Kennedy

It does not necessarily follow that New York leaders will oppose Kennedy because his selection would foreclose Wagner's chances. The New York delegation backed Kennedy for the vice presidential nomination in 1956 after the Wagner effort failed. New York leaders seem to be still friendly toward him.

It could be that the Wagner drive will be made contingent on nomination of a non-Catholic for president—that is, Wagner will be made ready to go if the opening presents itself.

HOOPER'S TONIC

Herbert Hoover is a wise old man. When he turned 85 the other day, he said a number of things that proved it once again. One sequence of remarks stands out because it touched upon a problem which will inevitably confront many Americans.

The former president was asked, as is traditional on these occasions, what he considers the secret of longevity and health. His reply: "Work." He elaborated on that: "I have not retired. Those who retire without some occupation spend their time talking about their ills and pains."

Hoover would doubtless grant that it is not as simple as all that, in many cases. The illnesses that often accompany the aging process cannot invariably be dismissed by simply ignoring them and going on with one's work. Nor is it easy for every man to find suitable occupation after he has retired from his regular job.

Still, there is wisdom in what Hoover said. He and Konrad Adenauer and Winston Churchill and Pablo Casals and other vigorous old men of our time illustrate the point. To think and work and remain active is a fine tonic in the sunset years.

There may be some doubt as to how well Jimmy Stewart could function as a brigadier general, but it must be admitted that he could do a fine job acting the part in a movie.

ABE'S HONESTY

No wonder they called him "Honest Abe." A hitherto unknown Lincoln letter, recently acquired by a Chicago collector, gives new proof of this characteristic.

On April 5, 1861, a month after Lincoln became president, a notification was prepared for the secretary of treasury requesting that a warrant be sent to Lincoln on that day, and on the first of each succeeding month, for the amount of his salary due. This had been prepared by a White House clerk, and was laid before Lincoln for his signature.

Lincoln, recalling that he had taken office on March 4, felt that his salary should begin on the day after that rather than on March 1. He therefore crossed out "first" and substituted "fifth." His first check thus came to $2,083.33, based on the presidential salary of $25,000 a year. E. B. Long, research director of Doubleday's "Centennial History of the Civil War," calculated that, but for Lincoln's correction of the notice, he would have received $273.97 more.

The letter will go on display in Freedom Hall, an Oak Park, Ill., museum for the exhibition of historic documents. It is a pleasant reminder that Lincoln's honesty was actual rather than merely legendary.

Judging by credit-buying statistics, the cuff rates at this country's most used piece of wearing apparel.

TOLEDO'S EXPERIMENT

If, in the evolutionary process, man's legs don't shrivel away from disuse, Toledo may deserve a share of the credit. In that Ohio city, an effort is being made to implant in the motor-conscious public's mind the merits of walking.

Far more is at stake than the benefits of exercise. Toledo officials have taken drastic action to rid the city of downtown traffic blues and to clear the shopping area of cars. A four-block section of the city's busiest area has been turned into a mall, an open area of trees, flowers, playgrounds and park benches. Cars have been barred and bus lines re-routed to give pedestrians full freedom.

The mall is experimental. It will be expanded and become permanent if the experiment is considered successful.

This is a daring, imaginative move by a major city to brake the traffic stranglehold which has caused the flight of business to the suburbs. The eyes of officials in other cities will be on Toledo, for the problem is a common one. If the Toledo experiment works out well, look for congested, gas-fumed downtowns elsewhere to follow suit.

'These Days'

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY
HOW TO SEE AMERICA

Usually when guests of the nation come to this country, the State Department works out an itinerary which often includes the big and spectacular cities and such places as are of special interest to the visitor. There are dinners and luncheons and speeches are delivered. Obviously, the man who is guarded by secret police and FBI agents and the local police and who moves through the country in a storm of confetti learns very little about the American people, what they think, how they live, and what they really believe to be true. The mass demonstration for Vice President Richard Nixon in Warsaw gave evidence of a spontaneous friendliness to an American, but neither Nixon nor anyone in his entourage sat down to a glass of tea with a few simple proletarian families, just as Khrushchev will not have occasion to do anything like that in this country.

Charles L. Dancey, editor of 'The Peoria Journal Star,' has made an interesting suggestion for Khrushchev's visit. He, of course, wants to have Khrushchev brought to Peoria. What, at least, could be done is to fly the Russian low from Pittsburgh to Cincinnati where he can see the greatest industrial complex in the world. He could be put down in the smaller cities of this area; if should be possible for him to visit homes. He might pick and choose so that he could not suspect that the show was set up for him.

He would find many Russian and Polish speaking people in these areas who could tell him of their lives in this country. He would find many whose ancestors were Ukrainians. He would discover how descendants of a great many races and nationalities manage to live and work together, retaining some of their inherited customs, but in the third generation, he will find that a new breed is emerging, an American breed, somewhat different from their sires but also different from what he might see in New York or Washington, in New Orleans or Chicago, in San Francisco or Los Angeles. The Middle West like New England is the America he ought to see, in many respects more surprising than the larger cities.

There is no American type as there is no Russian type. Certainly a Kalmuck is different from a Georgian, as a Ukrainian is different from a Uzbek.

In the United States, these differences are more pronounced because here for about 300 years, races of man have been mixing in a veritable melting pot. In some areas, the basic stock was Anglo-Saxon; in others, it was French or Spanish.

There was no time, from the earliest settlements until today, when there was not an influx of German peoples into this country. It is difficult to trace this kind of statistics, but there have been as many German, Dutch, and Scandinavian migrants into the United States as Anglo-Saxon. It is estimated that there are about 12,000,000 descendants of Italians.

The Jews first arrived in 1653 and there have been Jewish immigrants ever since; also, Jews have since the earliest days been assimilated into the general population and have disappeared as Jews. That trend is impossible to study thoroughly because of intermarriages and the Anglicization of names, but in certain areas, it must have been notably active.

All Russians have been led to believe that the Negroes are a brutally treated minority without rights, practically enslaved. And if Khrushchev is taken to Harlem in New York City, he will be in the ugliest ghetto in the world where Negroes live in crowded tenements and are usually exploited by Negro and white politicians. However, there are cities in the South and in the West where Negroes live comfortably and even advantageously because they are Negroes. It would be an act of patriotism for Negro labor leaders to establish to Khrushchev the fact of the equality of pay for identical work in cities like Detroit and Pittsburgh. He should be taken to universities where he can see Negro boys and girls preparing for national leadership. The lies that have been told in Russia by American Communists need to be exploded. Perhaps Khrushchev can still learn something about the United States and the American people.

If we want to show off, this is the kind of showing off we need to do. If this visit is not for showing off purposes, what is it for? We need to establish the fact that here live some 50 races and nationalities of man in mutual interest without accentuation of differences, but with freedom to pursue their differences if they so desire. We need to show him that in our freely demonstrated differences lie our strength.

Amazing in Their Variety

Today I shall try to answer a number of questions sent in by parents.

The first comes from a mother of a 16-year-old boy who has Scheuermann's disease. This is a condition involving inflammation of several vertebrae of the spinal column.

The symptoms generally begin between the ages of 12 and 16 and are likely to include fatigue with some pain in the back and lower extremities. While its cause is not clearly understood, it can generally be identified by an X-ray film.

The treatment depends on the severity of the symptoms and in mild cases it may be necessary merely to use postural exercises. Sometimes support of the spine by a brace or plaster jacket is advisable, and occasionally bed rest on a particular kind of frame is needed.

Fortunately, the disease has an active course lasting only two or three years, so the problem of treatment is to try to prevent any deformity of the spine.

"Is fatness in a baby a sign of health? Is it better for a baby to be over or underweight?" asks another.

This question can be answered quite definitely. Fatness in a baby (as in later life) is not a sign of health. If it occurs, the diet should be changed so that the baby will resume normal weight for its age. Underweight is probably equally undesirable.

Mrs. M. says that her 17-year-old boy constantly picks his nose and even does so when speaking to strangers. This is certainly an unpleasant habit, and also can result in injury to the nose passages.

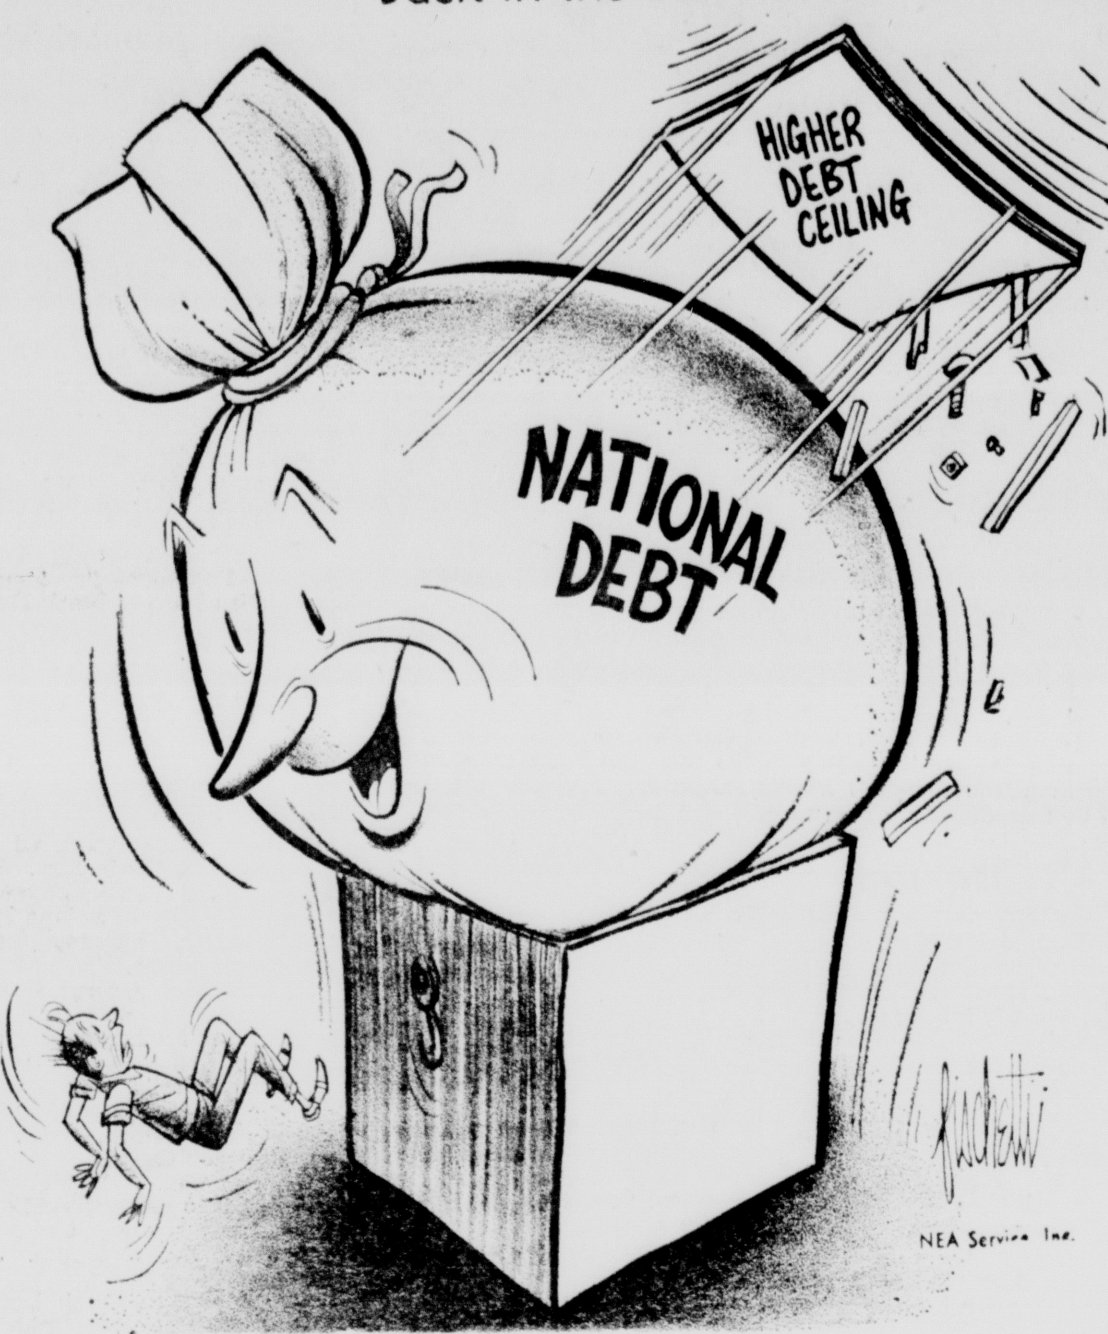

This boy surely does not do it on purpose and therefore it must be a subconscious habit. Probably if he can become aware of the times when he does this, he will be able to stop. He might put gauze, adhesive tape or gloves on the hand he uses to pick his nose and may in this way become conscious of when he does it and thus break the habit.

The mother of three boys writes that the youngest, who is 15, has been complaining of sore and swelling breasts, but that neither of the other boys have had this difficulty.

This condition is almost certainly connected with the boys' age—puberty—although the exact cause is not known, it is probably related to some kind of excessive hormone production. This may persist for a very brief time, or for months, but nothing needs to be done for it, as it disappears in a relatively short time.

Finally, a question on trichobezoar. This is a peculiar and rare condition in which a ball of hair forms in the stomach. It usually results from pulling the hair from the head and swallowing it. Apparently the largest ever reported weighed six-and-a-half pounds immediately on removal. The treatment is surgical and almost invariably successful.

Jack in the Box

Washington News

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Gov. Nelson Rockefeller's decision to let public opinion polls determine whether he should be a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination in 1960 has aroused some adverse comment here.

The argument against it is that this method would be undemocratic. It would let a small cross-section sample of the people determine who the presidential candidates shall or shall not be. Maybe only 2,000 or 3,000 would be voting out of a total estimated polled age population of 108 million in 1960.

But is this bad? And is it any worse than the old system of nominating presidential candidates in conventions of 1,000 sweating delegates surrounded by 10,000 screaming spectators, stampeding in a stockyards coliseum while brass bands and blaring broadcasts beat their brains out in bedlam.

The obvious answer to any reporter who has tried to cover one of these things—and to any stay-at-home who has watched proceedings on TV—is a great big, "No!"

IT ISN'T THE DELEGATES on the convention floor who make the decision, anyway. These delegates aren't picked because they have any special skill or aptitude for nominating presidential candidates.

They're picked for one of two reasons:

1. They are local political bosses who have the folding money—round trip railroad or plane fare plus, say $50 a day for living expenses—that it takes to finance a week at Convention City, Or.

2. They are political henchmen who will accept their expense money without asking where it came from and then vote the way the chairman of the state delegation wants them to vote—with the machine.

This makes the whole business just about as democratic as a biennial convention of the Teamsters Union or a congress of the Communist party—whichever you prefer.

For the sad fact is that in final analysis, most decisions at Republican and Democratic conventions are steered by rival factions of state and national party bosses, huddled in the traditional smoked-filled room. The result is nomination by a committee of professional politicians. How is that better than nomination by poll?

IN THEORY, THE TRULY DEMOCRATIC METHOD for determining party nominees is by primary election. This gets the largest possible number of voters to express their preference via the ballot box.

The trouble is, only 16 states and the District of Columbia have these preference primaries. And their experiences have not always been too happy.

Ev-Gov. Harold Stassen got knocked out of the running by ex-Gov. Tom Dewey in the 1948 Oregon primary. In the March 1952 New Hampshire primary, General Eisenhower won a running head start over the late Sen. Robert A. Taft.

In 1956 Sen. Estes Kefauver won five state primaries and lost seven. This didn't win him the Democratic presidential nomination though it may have helped him get the vice presidential nomination at the convention.

BUT THE COST OF PRIMARY CAMPAIGNING is high. And if candidates had to run in primaries in all 48 states, the cost would be prohibitive for anyone less rich than a Nelson Rockefeller or a Jack Kennedy. A Dick Nixon or a Hubert Humphrey couldn't afford it.

Incidentally, preference primary contests between Kennedy and Humphrey in Wisconsin and one or two other states next year might be fatal for one or the other. So the primary isn't the perfect answer to this problem.

But the national nominating convention may also have failed to pick the best men in every instance.

Maybe a national poll of Joe and Jane Doe's would do a better job in determining the people's choice.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTEROOK PEGLER

COPENHAGEN — Later in the day of Vice President Nixon's wrangle with Khrushchev in the model American home for a working Joe, a quorum of our journalism convened in the parlor which had been set aside for us in the Ukraine Hotel. This was unconsciously a fine refutation of the party line that the American press is a servile, venal mess of scamps attuned to the orders and whims of Wall Street.

The scrap in the kitchen, sadly reminiscent of such debates at many kitchen drainboards where the gin was compounded of tap water, alkali, jumper drops and glycerine, had occurred impromptu and the reporters had laid their pads against one another's shoulders, on the table, on the stove, on the rail closing off the breeze-way from the several rooms of the model house and scribbled as best they could. Some got sentences, others got little key words and phrases. Altogether, in the end, they all got it all in this patient conference in the briefing room. As they ran over the scene, patiently prompting, interrupting, correcting the sequence, character and tone of the exchange, the truth occurred to me that these careful conscientious men and three girls, Ruth Montgomery, Marguerite Hig-

Khrushchev Double-Cross Of Eisenhower Discerned

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — Evidence is accumulating that Nikita Khrushchev was double-crossing President Eisenhower all the time that the Chief Executive was discussing with him, through diplomatic channels, the possibility of inviting the Soviet Premier to visit the United States as a means of relieving international tensions.

For the critical situation that has arisen in Laos is the direct result of the Soviet government's decision during the last few weeks to intensify the "cold war" in the Southeast Asian peninsula.

Also the Chinese Communists, who act only after collaboration between Peiping and Moscow, have begun an invasion of Ladak—one of the states which are an integral part of the territory of India. It is on the border of Tibet.

This is an odd way to try to "relieve tensions." In fact, there is every indication that so far as the Moscow government is concerned, there has been a stepping up of the tempo of the "cold war" in Asia. Thus the Red Chinese are making hostile moves in the direction of Nepal—an independent republic—which lies on the border between India and Tibet. Latest maps from Peiping not only show Nepal as a part of Red China but they include within communist jurisdiction the northern state of Ladak in India itself.

This brazen aggression has attracted the attention of free governments throughout the world but not that of the free peoples, so many of whom are busily engaged now in discussions of how Nikita Khrushchev should be entertained on his visit to the United States.

The Soviet government, of course, has been sending out propaganda denying its maneuvers in Laos and other areas. Indeed, the Moscow foreign office makes the amazing claim now that the United States has violated the neutrality of Laos by setting up military bases there. Yet officials of the Soviet Union are well aware that the United States has no bases or any organized military missions in that country.

Invasion of Laos

The fighting in the little Buddhist kingdom of Laos has been carried on by an estimated 2,000 Red guerrillas who are attacking government troops at outposts. The invading forces come across the border from Communist North Viet Nam and are regularly supplied from there and from Red China. Significantly the Moscow official organ, "Izvestia," has served notice that hostilities "are apt to grow into protracted blood-letting and they may spread beyond Laos, engulfing a whole line of Southeast Asia countries."

All this started happening just after Nikita Khrushchev conducted personal conversations recently with Ho Chi Minh, the Communist Premier of North Viet Nam.

Both the Laotian provinces which now have been invaded from North Viet Nam were held by the Communist forces before the 1954 truce conference at Geneva, which this writer covered at the time. It was not until three years later that the Communists actually turned over the control of the disputed provinces. Now it looks as if the Reds want to take them back.

Many people may have forgotten the 1954 conference that ended the bloody war in Indo-China, in which the French made such big sacrifices to defend their protectorate. They finally agreed to release their former colonies from any jurisdiction by the French government. But solemn agreements were entered into then by the Communists, which now have been broken. The resumption of the war in Indo-China is on a par with the repeated violations of the Korean armistice by the Communists.

Laos is striving to get the United Nations to take some action or at least to make a thorough investigation of the fighting.

United States Embarrassed

State Department officials are embarrassed. They hesitate to come out in the open and accuse Khrushchev of bad faith, because everything is supposed to be sweetness and light these days in relation to the Soviet Union since the Soviet Premier is coming here as an official guest. But no such compromise seems to affect the Soviet Premier, who, as the man in governmental authority, has issued the instructions to stir up war in the provinces of Laos and northern India.

The tiny government of Laos has been making excellent progress toward setting up a democracy. Free elections are scheduled to be held. A new Premier had forced Communists out of the Cabinet. The economy had begun to improve. American advice and financial aid were given. Consequently, the government was gaining new followers as trained army teams provided health and sanitation facilities, rural schools and new roads.

Communist Aims

These measures were bringing about a stable situation in Laos. The policy was to be one of official "neutrality" as between the East and the West, but it has been obvious that the people of Laos have been leaning toward the West. This, of course, is what irks Khrushchev, who has given orders to aggravate the situation so it will involve the spending of more money by the Laotian government to protect itself. The new war is designed, of course, to bring the Communists back into the Cabinet preparatory to a take-over of the country from within by the Reds.

All this is happening at a time when many Americans aren't reading much about Laos but are worrying about how to show Khrushchev a good time in the United States. Sooner or later the free governments of the world must express themselves against such aggression, either through the United Nations or individually. For this is a deliberate enlargement of the "cold war." (Reproduction rights reserved.)

en dome. At Novosibirsk, in Siberia, he had set up a phone call to London.

That would have called for a revolution in the days of old man Scripps and the $2-raise, when you had to stand in line to get in our London shop if your memory failed in the late stretches of the night and you repeated eight words at a nickel each of a Bulgarian communique three days old lifted from the Morning Telegraph. We had to memorize the entire file for a week back and keep it in mind to keep out of sin.

Standing at the head of the table but with little to say, as though he had been out of earshot at the hassle, was a tall, narrow fellow whom I had been waiting to catch up with for some years. He was on the roster although he had been in very bad with the Soviet regime ever since September, 1954, when he wrote a great series exposing the horrible Soviet slave labor and prison system, including details of the mass deportations.

"He is a tall, tweedy, Ichabod Crane-looking guy with pepper-and-salt gray hair and mustache and glasses down his nose."

On that description, I made out Harrison Salisbury of the New York Times, learning incidentally that he also was a graduate of refuge from the old U.S. Some thing must be happening in Russia when the man who cracked the shell of that mystery and showed up Henry Wood as a silly, credulous dope could not only walk free in the shadow of the Kremlin but go back to Siberia with Vice President Nixon.

Diane Will Keep On Swimming, Not Bound for Altar

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — Diane Struble, 26-year-old, blonde, long-distance swimmer and mother of three, says her plans are for further swimming exploits — not matrimony.

Miss Struble, who is separated from her husband, denied Wednesday night a report that she intended to wed a Vermont school teacher. But in a telephone interview she added:

"I'd like to live the life of a married woman, not a career woman as I'm doing at the present time."

Of the wedding report, she said simply, "I'm not divorced." She said she has been separated for several years and did not know where her husband was. She refused to disclose his name.

"The most important thing to me is being a mother," she said. She has "boy friends all over," and had received many proposals, she said, but had no immediate plans to marry.

Miss Struble, who now lives at Lake George, said she would like to swim twice around Manhattan Island next year.

She recently swam once around the island, and a year ago, swam the 40-mile length of Lake George.

Earlier this year, she swam across Lake Champlain from Burlington, Vt., to Plattsburgh, N. Y.

She plans to swim 16 miles across Boston Harbor Sept. 15.

Ponti Free Man

ROME (AP) — Movie producer Carlo Ponti left Rome Wednesday a free man despite widespread speculation that his 11-day stay with his wife Sophia Loren would land him in jail on a bigamy charge.

The local deputy prosecutor said perhaps 100 private complaints had been made against the couple, who aren't legally married in Italy because Italian law doesn't recognize his divorce from his first wife. The prosecutor had said earlier that only Ponti's first wife or the minister of justice could bring bigamy charges. Neither did.

Water His Downfall

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — Chen Kuan-jou came to live with relatives in Taipei after his home in central Formosa was destroyed in the floods 10 days ago. He went for a swim Wednesday in the Tan-sui River and was drowned.

Was Sulphuric Acid

WASHINGTON (AP) — Police say tests show it was sulphuric acid which was squirted at Rep. Frank Thompson (D-N.J.) as he drove to his office Wednesday.

Thompson had reported that a man in a truck squirted the liquid from a syringe when he stopped his car at a traffic light. The fluid burned a hole in his shirt and left a slight burn on his arm. Thompson dismissed the incident as the work of a crank and said he thought it was unrelated to his work on labor legislation.

Penny Boosts Tax

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — Pennsylvania will join Washington as the second state in the nation to have a sales tax as high as 4 per cent. State Senate passage Wednesday night sent to Gov. David L. Lawrence the measure increasing the present 3½ per cent rate.

Says Soviets Free To Hear All Radio

LONDON (AP) — The Soviets are quite free to listen to foreign radio broadcasts, Radio Moscow said today.

"Not only are we allowed to hear foreign radio broadcasts but we do," said a commentator.

Practically every set on sale in the Soviet Union has a short-wave band, Moscow said, "and that means everybody has all the chance in the world to tune in to foreign broadcasts."

The broadcaster made no mention of the frequent Soviet jamming of Western programs.

Herter Gives Views

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, just back from a hemisphere conference on the uneasy situation in the Caribbean, said today that democracy cannot be imposed on countries by force.

He referred to small invasions of various Latin American countries this year in which it was claimed the expeditions were spreading democracy.

Herter called the foreign ministers conference at Santiago, Chile, "encouragingly successful."

Malaya Picks Rahman

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaya (AP) — Prince Abdul Rahman, father of Malaya's independence from Britain, today held a mandate to carry on the nation's pro-Western policy for another five years. Rahman's anti-Communist alliance party snarled under Nationalists and Socialists in the nationwide election Wednesday.

21 Students Die In Air Tragedy

BARCELONA, Spain (AP) — A holiday in Spain ended in death for 21 British students Wednesday when their chartered airliner shattered on a fog-wrapped mountain peak. The British crew of three and the eight other passengers also were killed. The students were returning to London. The twin-engine plane plowed into the to 2,400-foot peak of Man 25 miles northeast of here.

Wins $300 for Robot

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A Utah lad won $300 Wednesday with a four-foot robot which has a quart can for a head and a brain constructed from a pinball machine.

Theo Thompson, 18, demonstrated his robot at the Western Electronic Show, winning fourth prize in the future engineer's show.

His robot scooted across the floor, shook its head, blinked its eyes, sang songs, stooped and asked scientists, "How do you do, sir?"

Women Still Defy

DURBAN, South Africa (AP) — African women in southern Natal province Wednesday night kept up their defiance of government restrictions on their race.

Between 40 and 50 women were jailed at Escourt, 60 miles northwest of Pietermaritzburg, after they attacked the manager of a municipal beer hall.

The African women are fighting regulations which forbid them to make and sell their own potent home brew.

Open House Day Set in Warwick

The Historical Society of Warwick Town is arranging an interesting program for its fourth open house day Saturday, Sept. 5 from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. The Shingle House, Old School Baptist Meeting House, the 1810 House will be open, also, the John J. Beattie III home corner of Maple Avenue and Locust Street a former Bradner home, the Ira A. Hawkins Maplecroft, Edenville Turnpike, an interesting home because of its many antiques; the oldest house in Orange County built by Dr. Samuel Staats in 1700 and now owned by Mr. and Mrs. David Edward Hull; the Pelton Homestead on Pelton Road, a house filled with memories of the past; and the Mill owned and operated by W. Parks Baird on Baird's Lane.

Warwick Town was a part of the Wawayand Patent given to 12 Englishmen by Queen Anne in 1703. Benjamin Aske received by lot 2,200 acres in the southern part. In 1718, he came to claim it with his yeoman Lawrence Decker. He built a home and called the region Warwick supposedly after his home in England.

Just as the natural beauties attracted the early English pioneers and the rich farming land induced them to settle there, so today people from crowded areas are finding it a good place in which to live. The large substantial houses built in the early 1800's are examples of the gracious living of that period. A trip through Warwick Town is an interesting one.

Two women were reported injured in a two-car mishap at Franklin and Prospect Streets at noon today. In the one car, police said, was Carolyn Dickert, 49, of 22 Burgevin Avenue, who was admitted to Kingston Hospital for treatment of possible chest injuries. Anita MacLeod, 43, of 22 Church Street, in the other car was taken by Fatum Ambulance to the Benedictine Hospital for treatment of possible back and arm injuries. The local woman was taken to Kingston Hospital by her husband, police said.

Child Strangles In Crib Today at Kerhonkson Camp

Thor Sochan, four-month-old son of Wolodymyr and Neolila Merena Sochan, of 9 Hopkins Avenue, Jersey City, N. J., was pronounced dead from strangulation at Veterans Memorial Hospital, Ellenville, this morning.

The Sochan family were vacationing at the Ukrainian National Association resort at Kerhonkson.

Mrs. Sochan and a four-year-old child were at breakfast leaving the infant in his crib in their room. Upon returning she discovered the child ill. The infant was rushed to the hospital by the resort manager.

A Philadelphia doctor vacationing at the resort attended the infant at the scene. The child was pronounced dead on arrival at the hospital. Coroner Arthur A. Chipp of Kerhonkson was called and pronounced the baby dead of strangulation.

Kowalsky Funeral Home, Jersey City, N. J., is in charge of the funeral. Burial will be in Holy Cross Cemetery, North Arlington, N. J.

The infant was apparently in good health when placed in his crib and given his bottle at 6 a. m., the mother said.

Morning Blast Is Attributed to Supersonic Flight

A loud blast attributed to supersonic flight of a plane early today appeared to have interrupted the sleep of about everyone in Kingston and outlying districts.

The area has had many such experiences in recent years, but few, if any, in the early hours of the morning.

A police report noted the noise at 3:45 a. m., and Sgt. Thomas Tomshaw, who went outside of police headquarters, said he heard the sound of a plane in the area. Lt. Charles Hoehing also reported that the blast appeared to have set off a burglar alarm unit in the Leventhal building, Wall Street.

In the rash of telephone calls that followed at police headquarters from "all over the city," some thought it was an explosion within the city, others thought it a freak electrical storm, and possibly some thought the western earthquake had moved east.

Home Town Votes Gift for Anne, Steve Rockefeller

SOGNE, Norway (AP) — Councilmen of Anne Marie Rasmussen's home town voted Wednesday night to give her and Steven Rockefeller a wedding present. The vote came after a heated discussion.

Some voiced concern about the costs arising from the marriage next Saturday of the Norwegian blonde beauty and the scion of one of America's great fortunes.

Thrifty Folk

Sogne is a small town of only 3,500 on the south coast of Norway. The residents are traditionally thrifty fishermen and farmers.

So the question of a wedding present and costs of cleaning the grounds of the church for the wedding, plus removing the photographers' platform, kicked up a long debate among the councilmen.

"It was quite a fight," said one Sogne resident.

He said some councilmen argue that it would be improper to use public funds for the gift. In the end, however, the money was voted.

To Be Silver Gift

Sogne's present to Anne Marie and Steven will be "some silver," one source disclosed. He wouldn't say what form it would take, or how much it would cost.

The Rockefeller family will pay for the building of the photographers' platform, he said. The town will have to put up the money to take it down.

Anne Marie's father, Kristian Rasmussen, was annoyed when asked whether he is finding his daughter's wedding expensive.

"No one knows what the wedding is costing me," the retired grocer and fish exporter told a reporter. "I haven't said anything, and I'm not going to talk about it."

The bill sponsored by Reps. Phil M. Landrum (D-Ga.) and Robert P. Griffin (R-Mich.) was backed by President Eisenhower.

A House vote last Thursday substituted the Landrum-Griffin bill for a Democratic-backed measure considered less stringent in curbs on "blackmail" picketing.

Members who voted for the more Democratic-backed measure also received letters from Carey saying their support of "a progressive legislative program will, I am confident, assure you of support by the working men and women in your district."

The letters stirred up angry reaction among House members.

Rep. William H. Ayres (R-Ohio) said he hoped Carey was not speaking for AFL-CIO President George Meany.

"If threats like this on members of Congress continue, Mr. Carey will be placing himself in the same category as Mr. Hoffa (James R. Hoffa, Teamsters Union president)," Ayres said.

Senate-House conferees on labor control legislation continued efforts to reach agreement on different versions of the bills each passed.

They were reported to have discussed noncontroversial sections of the bills in closed sessions today.

The eligibility list for promotion to the post of sergeant contains the names of Officers Bernard Fowle and William Snyder.

Backers of Labor Control to Hear From AFL-CIO

WASHINGTON (AP) — House members who voted for labor control legislation last week were threatened with retaliation at the polls by a top AFL-CIO official today.

James B. Carey, AFL-CIO vice president and head of the International Electrical Workers, sent identical letters to House backers of the Landrum-Griffin labor-control bill.

"We wish to assure you," it said, "that we shall do all in our power to prove to the working men and women in your district that you have cast your lot against them and that we should like to take appropriate action at the ballot box."

The bill sponsored by Reps. Phil M. Landrum (D-Ga.) and Robert P. Griffin (R-Mich.) was backed by President Eisenhower.

For a Real Party Surprise

UMMM! Teamed together, corn bread and lobster ring arounds make for a real party surprise. Sauce is cheese flavored.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

How does this sound to you—golden corn bread ringlets filled with creamy lobster? The rings can be filled piping hot, or can be made ahead and heated before serving. The rich cream sauce is flavored with cheese and chunks of rosy lobster. Teamed together, the corn meal and lobster flavors are something very special.

Lobster Ring Arounds

(Makes 6 servings)

Corn Bread Rings: Three-quarters cup sifted enriched flour, ¾ cup enriched corn meal, 3 tablespoons sugar (optional), ½ teaspoon salt, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 1 egg, ½ cup milk, 2 tablespoons shortening, soft.

Creamed Lobster: Two 6-ounce cans lobster, ¼ cup butter or margarine, ¼ cup flour, ¼ teaspoon salt, 2 cups milk, ½ cup chopped green pepper, 1 cup shredded processed cheese.

For corn bread rings, heat oven to hot (425 degrees F.). Sift together dry ingredients into bowl; add egg, milk and shortening. Beat with rotary beater until smooth.

about 1 minute. Do not overheat. Bake in 6 greased and floured individual ring molds (½ cup each) in preheated oven (425 degrees F.) 12 to 15 minutes. (Greased custard cups can be used.) Let stand about 5 minutes. Turn out and fill centers with creamed lobster. If using custard cups, split muffins and fill. Garnish with tomato wedges.

For creamed lobster, drain lobster; remove membranes. Melt butter in saucepan; stir in flour and salt. Cook until bubbly; gradually add milk. Cook until thickened, stirring constantly. Add green pepper; reduce heat and cook 10 minutes. Stir in cheese and drained lobster; heat thoroughly.

TOMORROW'S DINNER: Shrimp butter canapes, lobster ring arounds, steamed rice, Melba toast, tossed green salad with tomato wedges, lemon and oil dressing, fresh strawberries, lady fingers, coffee, tea, milk.

Opens Aug. 28 Dutchess Orders More Tent Space For Annual Fair

Dutchess County Fair officials this week ordered several hundred square feet of extra tent space installed on the Rhinebeck showgrounds for this year's 114th annual exposition because the pressure of exhibits will overtax the many thousands of square feet of permanent buildings and the earlier plans for 42,000 square feet under canvas.

The fair will open at 9 a. m. Friday, Aug. 28, and run for six days and nights through Wednesday, Sept. 2. Children will be admitted to the grounds free on the first and last days of the fair.

County 4-H Club Agent Tozier said he expects 300 or more head of dairy and beef cattle and sheep in the 4-H section—an increase of 50 head. Meanwhile, general superintendent of cattle Louis Fish said it appears that some of the finest cattle in this country will appear in the open show ring this year.

Samuel H. Bridges, chairman of the Western, Pony and two English horse shows, said post entries will be accepted on all four horse show days, Aug. 29 through Sept. 1, because stall space is sold out.

Secretary of the fair Richard C. Murray said today that he has received word that the Budweiser eight-horse hitch will not appear at the fair because the company has taken its team from the fair circuit to rebuild it. However, as a replacement the Genesee Brewing Co. is sending to the fair its Lipizzans, the world famous snow-white Austrian horses. They will perform including their parade dressage act, before each of the free grandstand shows and in the horse show ring, as well.

In cooperation with this year's statewide Hudson-Champlain celebration, many of this year's special shows and exhibits will have the anniversary as a theme.

Long Island Girl Steps Into Path Of Taxi, Killed

Sandra Gerber, 16, of 5743 Manhattan Parkway, Little Neck, L. I., was killed at 2 a. m. today when she was hit by an automobile after she alighted from another vehicle on Route 161 at Thompsonville.

Wurtsboro state police said the girl died instantly of a fractured skull, crushed chest and internal injuries.

State Police Corporal Leslie Vincent and Troopers Thomas Cannochio and Victor Von Kampen investigated with Acting Coroner Daniel Schwartz of Monticello.

Troopers said the vehicle which struck the girl was owned by Mendels Taxi of South Fallsburgh and operated at the time by Rose Feldman, 43, of South Fallsburgh. The driver told authorities she was driving north on Route 161 when suddenly the girl loomed in front of the vehicle.

Authorities said the girl stepped from another automobile and walked around the back of the car into the path of the vehicle driven by the woman.

Birrell in Brazil, Sought in Fraud On Stockholders

NEW YORK (AP)—A former American corporation president, wanted in New York in connection with a 14-million-dollar fraud against stockholders apparently is safe from arrest while in Brazil.

Lowell M. Birrell, 52, one-time president of the Swan-Finch Oil Corp., and board chairman of the Doekin Products Corp., disappeared in 1957 and was found recently in Rio de Janeiro.

Manhattan Dist. Atty. Frank S. Hogan said Wednesday he thought at first he might get Birrell out of Brazil and back here to face fraud charges despite the lack of an extradition treaty between the U.S. and Brazil covering persons accused of crimes.

Later, Hogan said, the Brazilian government had "a change of mind" and now may decide to consider Birrell a political refugee.

Disbrow Remains Critical, Wife's Condition Good

A report from Greene County Memorial Hospital, Catskill, shortly before noon today described the condition of Clarence Albert Disbrow, 45-year-old Palenville plumbing contractor, as "still critical."

Disbrow and his wife, Mrs. Barbara Disbrow, 45, were victims of an assault last Sunday. Mrs. Disbrow's condition at the hospital in Catskill was described as "good."

State Police say, Disbrow was shot in the abdomen by Mrs. Disbrow's former husband, Frederick Linsley Roessler, 36, of Saugerties, who later died of self-inflicted wounds. Mrs. Disbrow was pistol-whipped on the head several times by her former husband, when he went to the Disbrow home to talk with Mrs. Disbrow about their two daughters, who were at a summer camp at Lake George at the time of the assaults.

Financial and Commercial

NEW YORK (AP)—Steels paced a sharp upturn in stock market prices early this afternoon. Trading ran at a vigorous clip.

Pivotal shares ran ahead fractions to 3 points or so. Only coppers, facing further strikes, failed to join in the broad advance.

The market inched ahead through the morning. A buying surge then erupted about noon to send prices sharply higher.

The steel rally followed a statement by Labor Secretary James P. Mitchell that an early settlement of the industry strike is possible.

Youngstown Sheet & Tube barreled ahead nearly 5 and Lukens more than 3. Bethlehem, Republic Steel and Jones & Laughlin vaulted around 2. U.S. Steel added about 1½.

Some rubbers, farm implements, aluminum, chemicals, oils and drugs also scored smart gains.

Motors, aircrafts, airlines and rails posted fractional advances. Some electronics, which led Wednesday's late rally, took losses.

At noon The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was $130 higher at $28.60 with the industrials up $2.40, the rails up $1 and the utilities up 20 cents.

Government bonds held steady.

Red Premier May Make Two Stops In U.S. Capital

By LEWIS GULICK

WASHINGTON (AP)—Nikita S. Khrushchev may stop in Washington twice during his visit to the United States, giving him extra opportunity for private talks with President Eisenhower.

The Soviet Premier is slated to arrive in Washington Sept. 15 for the start of a 12-day tour of the country. When he returns from his coast-to-coast travels, Eisenhower may take him to secluded Camp David in Maryland's Catoctin Mountains for a final chat.

This would afford Eisenhower a chance to speak to Khrushchev personally after the Soviet leader sees the United States first-hand. A major aim in inviting Khrushchev here has been to dispel what have been called his misconceptions about the freedom and strength of America.

An original estimate that Khrushchev would spend two to three days in Washington has now been lengthened to three or four days. The two men's talks on East-West issues would pick up in pace only after initial ceremonial functions due a visiting government head are out of the way.

Exact details on where Khrushchev will go and when are still being worked out in U.S.-Soviet negotiations. But due to Soviet restrictions, he will get only a limited and hurried view of the country.

The Soviets have set the time limit of 12 days on Khrushchev's visit. They have turned down U.S. sightseeing suggestions while sticking to their own, and the basic decision is up to them.

As a result, Khrushchev now seems likely to cross the country by airplane, with only limited auto travel, taking in New York, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Iowa, farmland and perhaps Pittsburgh.

Sinsapaugh Trial

Trial of Regina Sinsapaugh, 47, of 56 Auburn Street, one of 13 alleged bookmakers arrested late in July after raids by local and state police in the city, is slated for Sept. 3, it was announced after selection of a city court jury yesterday.

Dates of other trials are expected to be announced Friday.

Fined $15 each today on charges of speeding were Barbara Ann Smodes of Highland and Dennis B. Harp of 148 Fair Street. Patsy Stephano of 44 Boulder Avenue was fined $10 after trial on a speeding charge.

Attorney Robert M. Ortale appeared for him and John E. Gottelli for the district attorney's office.

Farley is board chairman of the Coca Cola Export Corp. He was U. S. postmaster general during Franklin D. Roosevelt's administration and is a former Democratic national chairman.

A Rockefeller aide said the new commissioners would be sworn in at ceremonies in the governor's New York City offices on Monday.

Actually they will not replace Monaghan until Sept. 1, which is the effective date of the law that created the three-member commission.

The law was enacted July 1 by a special session of the Legislature called by Rockefeller. The governor acted after Monaghan refused to resign.

Monaghan denied any improper conduct despite charges by the State Investigation Commission that he accepted free meals, drinks and other favors from the tracks he supervised.

Started as Patrolman

Glasser, 43, started as a patrolman in the Buffalo police department in 1940 and worked his way up to lieutenant. Meanwhile, he earned a degree from Buffalo law school and was admitted to the bar.

In 1953, he was elected sheriff of Erie County.

Eddy, 63, is the only member of the commission with a definite racing background. His grandfather, John Eddy, was one of the founders of the thoroughbred race track at Saratoga. Eddy himself once served as lawyer to the track's operators and later as a special counsel for all tracks in the state.

Named by Dewey

Eddy was elected Saratoga County judge in 1940 and served until 1945, when Thomas E. Dewey, then governor, appointed him to the PSC.

Farley, 70, has been a member of the State Banking Board, an unsalaried agency that makes rules governing banking practices. Last year, he made an unsuccessful bid for the Democratic nomination for U. S. Senator.

Negotiations still are under way in New York, but there have been no indications of progress.

Veterans Affairs Group to Display N. Y. Fair Exhibit

The New York State Division of Veterans Affairs in keeping with this year's New York State Fair theme, "Opportunity", will present a highly informative exhibit on the State and Federal benefits to which veterans, members of the armed forces and their families are entitled. Area residents planning to attend the fair at Syracuse were invited today by Charles L. Culver, co-sponsor of the New York State Division of Veterans Affairs and John B. Tyler, director of the Ulster County Veterans Service Agency, to visit the display in the State Exhibits Building which will be open from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. daily from Sept. 4 through Sept. 12.

Culver and Tyler added that the Division presentation is a pictorial exhibit designed to bring to the attention and understanding of a general public the services rendered by the New York State Division of Veterans Affairs. Visitors at the exhibit will have the opportunity of seeing, through the use of Tel-A-Story Slide Projectors, just how the Division functions in serving the veteran population of the Empire State. New York State Veterans Counselors will be on duty at the exhibit to answer any questions that visitors and members of their families may have concerning their rights and entitlements to veteran benefits.

He said he had time to utter only the word "Nahant" into the police radio before the men backed him against a wall.

Patrolman Joseph Flynn, driving a cruiser, heard the one-word message and the sound of several voices coming over the radio.

He sped to the station and found three men tampering with the door of the cell which held Stinson.

Flynn herded the trio upstairs, only to be pushed against a wall by the others. As one man threatened him with a club, he said, he pulled out his gun and struck two of them.

As the men were fleeing after Flynn fired a shot, Badger sounded an "assist" alarm over the police radio and help came from surrounding communities.

Alvin Weinsoff, 23, RFD, Ellenville, narrowly escaped injury at 3 a. m. today when his 1955 convertible went out of control and overturned off South Hill road at the intersection of Ulster Heights Road, Ellenville.

State Police Corporal N. G. Leakes said Weinsoff was traveling north when suddenly two deer appeared on the highway in front of him. As he swerved to avoid hitting the deer he lost control and the car went into a ditch where it overturned and landed on its top.

Leakes said the operator escaped injury. The deer darted into the woods.

15-Man Gang Fails To Free Prisoner

NAHANT, Mass. (AP)—A gang of 15 men, some armed with clubs and lengths of pipe, burst into the Nahant police station early today in a wild but futile attempt to free a prisoner.

The gang fled when a patrolman struck two of them with his revolver and fired a warning shot.

Seven New Prisoners

A short while later the seven became prisoners themselves on charges which included inciting a riot, attempting to free a prisoner, assault, assault and battery, and drunkenness.

Four of the gang were caught at a roadblock and three at the Lynn hospital where two had gone for treatment of bruises suffered in the scuffle in the police station.

Police Chief Benjamin Lamphier said the gang tried to liberate Donald Stinson, 27, of Swampscott, who was locked up on a drunkenness charge.

Patrolman Albert Badger said he was alone in the police station when the gang drove up in three automobiles.

He said he had time to utter only the word "Nahant" into the police radio before the men backed him against a wall.

Charge of Petit Larceny Is Dropped

A charge of petit larceny made by Howard Whittaker against George Fitzgerald of Bruyn Avenue, has been withdrawn. Fitzgerald was represented by Attorney Charles Saccoman. The matter was scheduled before Justice of the Peace Arthur A. Kelly of the Town of Ulster for 3 p. m. Wednesday. At that time the case was formally dismissed when the complaint was withdrawn by Whittaker who told the court he had been mistaken on the facts when he lodged the complaint.

The charge grew out of the alleged taking of lumber valued at $30 from the Otto Sturm premises at 292 Clifton Avenue, Strum, owner of two structures, allegedly sold one to Whittaker, and Attorney Saccoman said, told Fitzgerald he might take lumber from the second building. Whittaker charged lumber had been taken from the building he had purchased. When the error was discovered, counsel for Fitzgerald said, the complaint was withdrawn by Whittaker.

Think It Through

E. F. HUTTON

WHERE KARL MARX WENT WRONG

How much more work does the average American worker turn out in a 40-hour week than his grandfather did in a 70-hour week in 1900?

Three times.

And his week's wages will buy three times as much as his grandfather's wages sixty years ago. We have more only because we produce more.

The recent 250-page report by the Department of Labor tells of this astonishing progress. But why did it happen?

Is it because we are better and faster workers than grandpa, or his grand-dad in 1800? We may be some better but not three times.

The old-time coppersmiths, iron workers, gunsmiths, and clock and cabinet-makers around 1800 turned out masterpieces of craftsmanship, which are hard to beat today.

But when we recall that in 1800, eighty-five per cent of our people worked the land and barely produced enough food, wool, cotton, etc. for themselves and the remaining 15%, whereas today one farmer produces enough for himself and seven others, we understand why the miracle has happened.

More and better tools, and mechanical horsepower in place of the muscle power of men, women, horses and oxen.

These things can be paid for only by money saved by individuals and the profits of business.

A century ago, Karl Marx hoisted the red flag and said that Capitalism—tools, engines, etc.—made slaves of workmen and must be destroyed. History shows how wrong he was.

Steel Strike At-A-Glance

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

IDLE: Half million striking steelworkers and 150,000 other workers whose duties have been curtailed or stopped due to lack of steel.

NEGOTIATIONS: Talks continue in New York. There were some hopes that top union and industry people would be back.

DEVELOPMENTS: The American public has been supplied with a mass of statistics and figures on the orders of President Eisenhower and Secretary of Labor Mitchell. The figures show that steel prices, wages and profits have been increasing steadily for years.

ISSUES: Union men want 15 cents an hour more money and better fringe benefits. Industry says this would be inflationary.

LOSSES: Weekly production totaling about 300 million dollars, weekly wages of about 70 million.

Top Score Is JTB Result

By OSWALD JACOBY

Written for NEA Service

South's four spade contract could only be arrived at by the Jacoby transfer bid. When North responded with two clubs and then showed his heart suit South decided that his partner would have used a regular transfer to diamonds instead of the Stayman two clubs (which is a part of the JTB) if he did not have four spades with his five hearts.

West opened the king of clubs and continued the suit. South ruffed with dummy's five of trumps and after thinking over carefully proceeded to cash the ace and king of hearts and two high diamonds stopping in dummy.

Now he ruffed hearts and clubs back and forth and eventually wound up with 11 tricks.

It looks like a very complicated way to bid and make game but South was playing duplicate and his five odd was a top score.

Also, while four hearts made easily at a few tables most South players wound up at three no-trump whereupon West would run his club suit and set the hand right off the bat.

To Ask Dues Hike

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Members of the United Glass & Ceramics Workers Union will be asked if they want to give their international union a bigger slice of local dues dollars.

Delegates at a special union convention here on Wednesday agreed to call for another eight per cent of the dues, boosting the share from 37 to 43 per cent.

The 50,000 members will vote on the plan in a referendum election.

Ralph Reiser, international president, called the plan a "victory for the trade union movement."

He said it would add about $150,000 to the union's income.

The meeting was called when the organization found itself in a poor financial position.

Delegates also voted to keep intact an emergency dues split imposed by the executive board when funds became low.

Anti-DeSapio Group to Move Into Upstate

NEW YORK (AP)—The Lehman-Finletter-Mrs. Roosevelt insurgent Democratic group plans to extend its operations Upstate after the Sept. 15 primary election.

Paul F. Bragdon, the group's executive chairman, said the objective was to insure that New York delegates chosen for the 1960 Democratic national convention will be "free agents who cannot be bought, sold or traded."

Erie County and its principal city, Buffalo, are expected to be among the first areas of the Upstate activities.

The so-called "grass roots" group's main goal in the primary in New York City is the removal of Tammany Hall Leader Carmine G. DeSapio as Manhattan party leader and a power throughout the state. DeSapio has been the group's main target in its charges of bossism in the Democratic Party in the state.

The group is led by Herbert H. Lehman, former U. S. senator and governor; Thomas K. Finletter, former secretary of the Air Force, and Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Banner Attendance: SchaferChampionships Feature Final Week of 'Y' Day Camp Event

Olympic championship activities highlighted last week's closing schedule at the new YMCA Day Camp at Shokan.

Although the camp development, which started in the new 35-acre plot in Shokan in the early spring and was continued during the summer's program, Louis H. Schafer, camp director, pointed to the banner year's attendance of 327 boys and girls participating one or more weeks.

Diplomas, Ribbons Awarded

"This figure was highly gratifying to the entire staff at the day camp," Schafer said today and he added that he was looking forward to another splendid year during the 1960 season.

Awarding of diplomas and ribbons also featured last week's wrapup with a hot dog roast at the camp. Ice cream, donated by George J. Silkworth, chairman of the day camp committee and manager of Babcock's Dairy, also was featured.

In summing up the past season at the new Shokan site, Schafer today pointed to the following major points:

The hiking and nature study carried as much interest as swimming, the play area and baseball field was used extensively and when fully developed should be an outstanding feature in the 1960 camp; boating also was developed to the extent that more boys and girls learned to use this special water equipment.

Richard W. Case, assistant camp director, reporting that small boats were used for this activity, measuring 12 feet long and weighing about 100 pounds, said they made for easy handling for even the youngest camper.

Parents Like Camp

Proper handling of the boats by the younger boys and girls, Case pointed out, could be very advantageous in cases of emergency. He stressed that, youngsters, after this training, would know the simple art of boat maneuverability if ever caught out on the water during a storm and high waves.

Parents, according to Schafer and Case, also were highly impressed with the new day camp location. Parents expressed comments that it was exceptionally fine to have such a place for boys and girls to go for a day's camping and outing, particularly under adult supervision.

Helicopter Crews At Wallkill Drop ZoneEndTraining

WEST POINT — Ten H-21 helicopters and crews assigned to West Point for two weeks of summer training activities will return to Ft. Devens, Mass., next Wednesday.

They arrived last week to support maneuvers aimed at instructing cadets in helicopter concepts and tactics under simulated combat conditions and have operated between Stewart Air Force Base and restricted areas of the military reservation.

A spokesman for the Aviation Detachment said last week that "the increasing emphasis being placed upon aerial mobility of our armed forces makes such training mandatory in order to provide cadets with a broad background in military operations."

The helicopter crews underwent an extensive training program last May at Stewart and Wallkill Drop Zone and participated in an aerial search for two persons presumed drowned in the Hudson River.

Today's Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — Still costlier loans and still tighter money are predicted today.

Interest rates already are starting another climb. There are more complaints from home builders of trouble in finding someone to lend them money against a mortgage.

Partly Due to Policy

Part of this is due to the policy of the nation's money managers. They've wanted credit to be tight to stave off a speculative boom that could spur fresh inflation—an old-fashioned word which President Eisenhower's Cabinet committee on price stability for economic growth now refers to as "rises in the general price level."

But bankers here insist that most of the reason for tighter money isn't Washington policy itself. It's the law of supply and demand. People are slowing down on their rate of savings. At the same time they—either as individuals or as managers of business or as officials of federal, state or local governments—have been stepping up their demand for loans.

When the demand for money grows faster than the supply—fed by savings normally, or by the printing presses abnormally—interest rates go up.

Secretary in Squeeze

It's this squeeze in which the secretary of the Treasury finds himself. He has to borrow money because the government is spending more just now than it is taking in from the taxpayers; billions of dollars worth of outstanding securities are coming due and can be repaid only by borrowing more money (known as refunding the debt); and holders of savings bonds are redeeming them in greater volume than others are buying new ones.

The secretary is having trouble selling bonds because investors can get a higher return from several other kinds of investments. That's why the Treasury wanted Congress to let it pay higher yields on savings bonds.

Can't Go Over 4 1/4 PC

The Treasury can compete with other borrowers in the short-term money market because there is no legal limit on the interest it pays—and that charge is now the highest in years.

But the law forbids the treasury to pay more than 4 1/4 per cent interest on any bond running for five years or longer. The House Ways and Means Committee has just pigeonholed President Eisenhower's request to let the Treasury pay more. And the secretary says he can't find any one who'll lend him money at the present rate.

Bankers here say that with the Treasury now confined to doing all it's borrowing at short term, the market will get all the tighter and tend to force interest rates higher.

Silver Bares Graft In Brooklyn Office

NEW YORK (AP) — "Concrete evidence" of graft and corruption in the Brooklyn office of the city Department of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity is reported by Dist. Atty. Edward S. Silver.

Silver declined Wednesday to reveal to newsmen the details of the evidence his investigators had obtained. He told of the alleged graft as 39 inspectors in the Brooklyn office appeared under subpoena before a racket grand jury.

Those who were called before the grand jury are among 50 electrical inspectors employed in the Brooklyn Bureau of Electricity. Silver said the rest of the inspectors will be subpoenaed.

The witnesses were given financial questionnaires to fill out in the next two weeks. The inspectors were ordered to appear before the grand jury Sept. 3 with the questionnaires.

She's 100, Gains Year

TROY, N. Y. (AP) — Mrs. Mary A. McGraw celebrated her 98th birthday anniversary last year. This year she is 100. A family friend, the Rt. Rev. Joseph M. O'Connor, checked her birth certificate and found she was born Aug. 17, 1859, not in 1860, as she had believed.

Tax Hike Saved State, Governor To Budget Group

NEW YORK (AP) — Gov. Rockefeller says New York State would have plunged over "an economic Niagara Falls" — without even a barrel for protection — if state taxes had not been raised this year.

The Republican governor, defending his tax increase program, again assailed the fiscal policies of the administration of Democrat W. Averell Harriman, whom he succeeded last January.

Rockefeller spoke Wednesday night at the annual dinner meeting of the National Assn. of State Budget Officers.

He advised the members to think far enough into the future so that their states will be prepared to meet both responsibilities and opportunities.

"On assuming office," he said, "I found to my dismay how really unprepared the previous administration had been in relation to its fiscal responsibilities."

"It had been living way beyond its means and was heading blissfully for an economic Niagara Falls. If we had continued on such a course, we wouldn't even have a barrel to go over the falls in."

The governor reiterated his support of a pay-as-you-build policy on major construction, and said: "People realize that it is cheaper and sounder to pay as we go than to resort to borrowing for current needs at a cost of $1.50 for every $1 borrowed."

ITU Asks Million For Westchester Daily Newspaper

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The International Typographical Union is again asking its members for one million dollars to start a daily newspaper in Westchester County, N. Y.

The union's decision, made on Wednesday by delegates to the 101st annual convention, must be ratified by the 110,000 members in a mail referendum.

A similar resolution, sponsored by the Rochester local, was defeated in a mail referendum several months ago. This new resolution calls for a $12 assessment from each active member, at the rate of one dollar a week for three months.

The drive for a union-sponsored newspaper is a result of labor trouble which began in December 1957, when 147 printers struck six dailies and three weeklies owned by the Macy chain. The dailies are the only ones in the suburban county.

Most of the printers never went back to work. The union says that management brought in new help to keep the papers going and that what started as a strike over a new contract became a lockout.

Boy Killed by Trains

NEW YORK (AP) — A 12-year-old boy returning from the beach was killed Wednesday night when two trains bore down on him from different directions as he was halfway across the tracks of the Staten Island Rapid Transit Railway.

Barry Clark, of Staten Island, was taking a shortcut home across the tracks at the Princes Bay station. As he reached the space between the two tracks, a northbound train and a southbound train came at the same time. The boy was struck by the northbound train, and his body was dragged 90 feet.

Woman Hit by Train

POWELL, Vt. (AP) — Miss Winifred Stowell, 20, of Hoosick Falls, N. Y., was struck by a Boston & Maine freight train Wednesday and suffered a fractured arm and bruises.

The accident was near the Powell Tanning Co., where she is employed.

Releasing Steel Data Is Seen Unlikely to Bring Quick Pact

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — The steel strike had been going on since July 15 and President Eisenhower and Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell decided to do something about it, but in a very restrained way.

They hadn't taken sides. And they weren't taking sides now, although if the strike continues into late September the shortage of steel may create a national emergency.

Both Sides Wavle

The two men thought it might be worthwhile to give the public some facts and figures which various government agencies have gathered on steelworkers' earnings and productivity and on the steel industry's prices and profits.

The steel dispute really began early last May when negotiations started. But from the beginning both sides have dangled in one of the most lackadaisical negotiations in American history.

And even now, with the strike costing 300 million dollars a week in production and 70 million dollars in wages, neither side shows a pressing anxiety to reach a settlement.

So just how laying down some facts and figures on wages and profits might hasten an agreement isn't at all clear. But Eisenhower and Mitchell decided to go ahead and make the figures public.

Mitchell announced Tuesday the government's figures would be unveiled at a news conference Wednesday afternoon.

No Conclusion Drawn

As each reporter walked in he got a 42-page, brown-paper-covered booklet with masses of statistics and charts. The information it contained had been gathered from government agencies and some of it even from the steel industry itself.

The booklet had an explanatory foreword by Mitchell. In it he said: "There are no conclusions drawn in this booklet. The responsibility for a settlement of the strike rests upon management and labor in the industry."

If the President or Mitchell had drawn conclusions from the figures they produced, they would have been putting the heat on one side or the other in the dispute to get off the high horse.

But without such official conclusions, the result had to be every man for himself in deciding what the figures meant. The reporters realized this, of course, but were glad to see the government figures anyway.

But then they read elsewhere in Mitchell's foreword this statement: "Management and labor already know these facts."

One gray-haired reporter, who has been around Washington a long time and has never been easily impressed by the pronouncements of government officials, read that sentence from yet.

Mitchell's foreword to some of the reporters around him.

He said it reminded him of a couple of vaudeville comedians he saw once. One of them was lying on the stage, supposedly wounded in battle. The other said: "Tell me your name and I'll tell your mother."

But the one lying on the stage said: "You don't have to tell my mother. She knows my name."

This may have been a sardonic view of the situation after Eisenhower and Mitchell went to the trouble of gathering into one booklet a mass of information on steel profits and wages.

But it did point up the central question:

Strike to Stay

If the steel union and the steel industry know all these facts and after almost four months haven't made any progress toward a settlement, why should anyone think making the facts public will have any effect on either side?

Since the government isn't willing to go beyond saying "come on, boys, and get together," there is a pretty good chance there will be a steel strike for quite a while yet.

Rotary Club Honors Hatty For Community Services

Woodstock Rotary Club, at its weekly meeting at Holiday Country Inn, gave deserved recognition to a Woodstock resident who has done a tremendous job as a volunteer helper for the annual Woodstock Library Fair and in other civic projects.

Guest of honor at the Rotary meeting was William Hatty of Woodstock, an IBM employee, who worked on the Fair's Grounds Committee with James D. Hood of Zena and John Bennett of Woodstock.

The Rotary salute to Hatty was "in recognition of his outstanding services, not only to the Library fair, but in other fields that have never been publicized." Hatty was given a standing ovation by the club members. It was pointed out that he had given a week of his vacation time helping the fair.

Another highlight of the meeting was the official visit of District Governor Harris E. Dexter of Poughkeepsie. Dexter is the retired vice president of Central Hudson.

Threatened Family

Troopers Lift Vigil at House As Man Escapes

SENECA FALLS, N. Y. (AP)—A man who reportedly threatened to kill his wife and five children eluded police early today and state trooper shifted an all-night watch they had kept on his house.

Police said they found three of the children sleeping safely in the house. The other two were with their mother, who had taken them to a neighbor's Wednesday.

The police said the man, Benjamin Martin, 34, had apparently sneaked from the house sometime after midnight and drove off in the family automobile over a lane, unknown to the watcher in back of the farm home.

They did not know where Martin was or if he were armed. Two troopers remained at the house with Mrs. Martin and the five children.

The watch was placed Wednesday night after Mrs. Martin told police her husband was drunk and had threatened to kill his family. She said he had a loaded shotgun in the house.

Troopers said they could find no weapon in the building and assumed Martin took it with him.

They said Martin had been unemployed for some time and recently had been selling household and personal articles in order to buy liquor.

Barn Burns Also

SHELBY, N.C. (AP)—Two youngsters were given torches Wednesday and told to burn out wasps nests under the eaves of a barn on the D. D. Lattimore farm near here.

They did. The barn also burned down. The loss was figured at $500.

Week's Business Review

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS, Housewives who shop the specials will serve bacon for breakfast and chuck roast or turkey for dinner, judging by offerings at the nation's supermarkets and neighborhood grocery stores this week.

Turkeys Plentiful
Prices as low as 59 cents a pound for bacon reflect generally lower pork prices in recent weeks in the wake of a big pig crop. Chuck, of course, is a staple of bargain hunters, while turkeys again are plentiful this year.

Eggs to go with that breakfast bacon may be on the small side, however, for little eggs are a big bargain at this time of year. Spring chickens are starting their production with small but high quality eggs, increasing the supply of pullet eggs, while mature hens reduce their output of larger eggs due to hot weather.

Egg prices are marked up 2 cents or so a dozen in a few places, but the increases are mostly on the medium and large sizes, further accentuating the spread in prices and emphasizing the bargains in small sizes.

Butter also is a bit more expensive in some areas.

Good Vegetable Buys
Fruits and vegetables offer a wide variety of bargains again this week.

Sweet potatoes are an especially attractive buy. Other outstanding buys are snap beans, cabbage, sweet corn, cucumbers, eggplant, endive, escarole, potatoes, onions, tomatoes, peppers, squash and lima beans.

Apples top the best buy list among fruits. Good buys include watermelons, limes, honeydew melons, blueberries, most types of peaches, plums, Bartlett pears and grapes.

Vet. 116, Critical

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—The last survivor of the Civil War armies sank into delirium for a time Wednesday, then rallied slightly.

The condition of Walter W. Williams, 116-year-old Confederate veteran, remained critical.

"Thais" is both an opera and a novel. The former is by Jules Massenet, the latter by Antole France.

Why Collegians Fail

One out of every three young people who enter college fail to graduate.

Why?

John W. Shainline, dean of students at Gettysburg College, says, "Educators are spending endless hours of study to find the answer to this question. But some facts are clear."

"At the very least, two and a half million young Americans will be in college this fall. Of these, over a million will be freshmen. And more than one-third of these freshmen will never graduate," he observes.

Some leave for financial reasons. This is unfortunate, he says, because in many cases these students do well in college before they find it necessary to leave.

Others are drafted. Some drop out because of poor health. Many leave for "personal" reasons—marriage, family concerns or just the realization that college is not the place for them.

"But the principal concern of colleges is the withdrawal of students who have the potential to graduate, but who simply fail," the Gettysburg dean says.

"All college deans in this country would agree on one point, I believe. The major problem of the college freshman is that of adjusting to a new kind of life in which he is expected to behave like an adult."

"What happens to a student in college during the first year or two depends on whether he or she is ready to grow up, ready to understand what college is," Dean Shainline says.

"Colleges must attempt to prove very early that the freshman year is not a high school grade 13. The successful student finds out quickly that college is a place for adults, not an advanced school for children. A very important problem facing every freshman is that of adjustment to a unique society, one totally different from high school."

"In school, it seems, boys and girls are taught something about how to pass courses in order to get a school diploma. In college, on the other hand, they are required to learn to think, to handle complex intellectual problems on their own. Intellectual independence, the first college requisite, is often a distinct shock to a freshman."

But no college adviser, Dean

Shainline says, can merely walk up to a floundering freshman and say, "You will do all right as soon as you grow up." Instead, nearly all colleges provide elaborate orientation and follow-up programs to smooth the path for the freshman and warn him what is ahead.

"When the million new freshmen arrive on the campus at the end of nearly 2,000 colleges in America, they will be put through varying orientation programs. The 475 freshmen entering Gettysburg College, for instance, will receive seven days of orientation before classes begin," Dean Shainline says.

"Many colleges in their orientation in past years have concentrated rather heavily on the area of social values and activities, perhaps to the neglect of the most important—orientation to the academic program, to intellectual independence, to 'growing up.'"

"Gettysburg College and many liberal arts colleges will this year include more emphasis on academic orientation than at any time in the past."

John W. Shainline was born in 1922 in Norristown, Pa. He took A.B. and M.A. degrees from Gettysburg College and Columbia University. A veteran of over three years service with the U.S. Marine Corps in the Pacific during World War II, he is a former coach and physical education specialist. He was named dean of students at Gettysburg College in 1957.

Office Opened To Handle Mental Retardation Data

ALBANY—Organization of an Office of Mental Retardation in the New York State Department of Mental Hygiene to coordinate and develop all services for the mentally retarded was announced today by Dr. Paul H. Hoch, commissioner of mental hygiene.

The new office will have its headquarters in the department's Albany office at 240 State Street, near all official state agencies responsible for the welfare of the mentally retarded. Dr. Hoch said. It will be under the direction of Dr. Arthur W. Penise, deputy commissioner, assisted by Dr. Joseph L. Camp, newly appointed deputy assistant commissioner.

The staff of the office will visit the state's six institutions for the mentally defective regularly. Dr. Hoch indicated, and will coordinate the institutional programs and activities with the work of various units in the central office of the department.

The emphasis of the office will be on improvement of care of the patients in the institutions; development of new programs designed to improve training activities, and encouragement of placement of suitable patients in the community.

Efforts also will be made to stimulate the development of community programs for the mentally retarded, particularly those which would encourage community rather than institutional care of the retarded. Another responsibility will be the development of new institutions for the mentally retarded which will be necessary to provide for those patients who cannot be cared for in community programs.

Other responsibilities will include handling special problems of family and convalescent care and periodic population adjustments in the institutions. A pressing current problem related to such adjustment is the selective admission process for children under five year of age when there is a shortage of accommodations for these patients.

1960 Fire Parley

the driver and Jones, a helper on meetings.

The Rosendale firemen were praised for the excellent job which was done for the 1959 convention and for the year book which was published in connection with the convention. Majestic suggested that a history of the fire companies in the county be incorporated in a 25th anniversary program year book. He suggested that a publicity committee of at least seven be named to work on the project.

Suggests Field Day

It was also the suggestion of President Majestic that the Association hold a field day each year around the date of the annual convention, or just prior to the convention.

Alvin Beatty, chairman of the Inter-County Relations committee, reported that Sullivan County was holding a field day and demonstration at Liberty on September 19 at 2 p. m. He also reported on attendance at the Sullivan County meeting where transistor radios were demonstrated.

Names Committee

President Majestic named as the nucleus of a field day committee Chief Greer of Walker Valley, Herbert Fauroute of Bloomington and Philip Donahue of Gardiner and stated others would be named to the committee after they had been consulted whether they could serve. The type of contests, awards and other facts pertaining to a field day will be further discussed. It was pointed out that field day demonstrations by fire companies would improve techniques, increase interest in drills and make for better efficiency.

It was suggested by President Majestic that if fire-fighting demonstrations could be held at some central point where there was sufficient room to operate, much could be accomplished and he suggested that perhaps some public-spirited citizen might offer a tract of land for a permanent location. It was the opinion that about 35 acres would be required. A permanent county headquarters of sufficient size would probably attract large fire equipment companies to offer demonstrations of new equipment and techniques.

Reports On Duties

Ulster County Fire Coordinator Winfred Snyder of Hurley gave a report on his duties as outlined by the State. He also reported the base station for the two-way radio service would be in operation by September first.

Three new members were voted into the Association. They are Eugene Hunter of Hurley, Wilbur Delaney of Kingston and John Reichert of Sawkill. Alfrederick Kilmer of Ulster Hose Company No. 5, Town of Ulster, called attention to a cafeteria type of supper to be served on September 19 from 5 to 8 p. m. and the block dance which the company is sponsoring that evening from 8 to 12 o'clock.

Named to Serve

President Majestic named several committee members, but stated that additional names would be added as soon as consent of service by other members was secured. Among the committee names announced were:

Law Committee—Lawson Upright of Gardiner, Alvin Beatty of New Paltz and William Curran of Rosendale.

Radio Committee—William Quick of Sawkill, Robert Laquette of Shawangunk.

Red Hat Committee—Edward Heaney.

Fire Police Committee—Edward Rhodes of Marlborough, president of the Ulster County Fire Police and present officers of the Fire Police Association.

Fire Prevention Committee—Edward Mains, Port Ewen; Joseph Murphy, Kingston; Lawson Upright, Gardiner. Others to be announced.

County Map, Mutual Aid and Fire Hazard committee—Adam Ulrich, Wallkill; Chief Greer, Walker Valley; Elwood Smith, Modena and Joseph Murphy, Kingston.

Resolution Committee—Arthur Hahn, Binnewater.

Auditing Committee—Morton Finch, Kingston; Ray Whitbeck, Kingston; Everett Mains, Port Ewen, Lee Keator, New Paltz. Treasurer of Bloomington Fire Company and Rosendale.

Publicity Committee—Kenneth Dyson, Robert Browning, Richard McCarthy.

The next meeting of the County Association will be at Highland on September 15, when Highland Hose Company will be host.

The meeting was turned over to President William Knight of the Shandaken fire department and refreshments were served by the Ladies Auxiliary, Mrs. Earl Rowe, president.

2nd Nuclear Sub To Be Launched On September 22

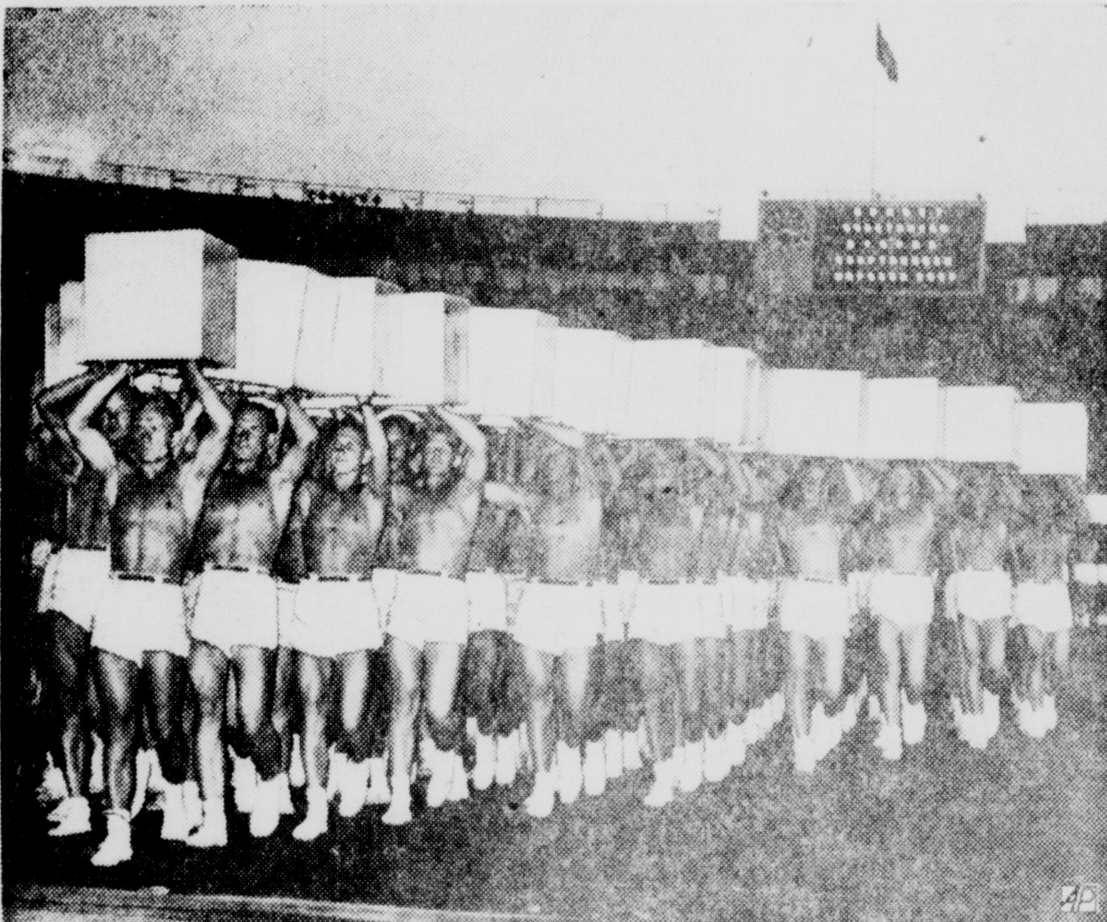

GROTON, Conn. (AP)—The Patrick Henry, second nuclear submarine capable of firing the Polaris ballistic missile, will be launched here Sept. 22.

This was announced today by the Electric Boat Division of General Dynamics Corp., builders of the nation's first Polaris-equipped atomic sub, the George Washington.

The 380-foot, 5,400-ton Patrick Henry will also be armed with torpedoes. Like the George Washington, launched June 9, the Patrick Henry is due for completion in 1960.

DISARMING CHAT—Italian actress Sophia Loren gestures as she talks with American co-star Clark Gable before they begin making movie, "Bay of Naples," in Rome.

SETTING UP STUNT—Red Army men carry cubic blocks into Moscow's Lenin Stadium where they held blocks above heads to form a highway for motorcyclists.

According to legend, Kill Devil Hill, N. C., site of the first airplane flight, got its name from a brand of rum so potent that it could "kill the devil."

TRICK SIGHT—The light bulbs installed on vanes of this old Dutch mill near Amsterdam and the cameraman's time exposure create illusion of high speed.

RELAXED ENTRY—Billie Stroud, 11, warms up fiddle and his gum before competing in annual Canadian Open Old-Time Fiddler's contest at Shelburne, Ont.

Three Are Hurt In Rt. 28 Crash

Three persons were injured in a three-car accident which occurred on Route 28 at Glenford at 5 p. m. Wednesday, according to the sheriff's office.

The operators of the vehicles were listed as Morris Brody, 45, of 137 Minerva Drive, Yonkers; Farkis Shahbendarian, 46, of 2400 Sedgwick Avenue, Bronx and Andrew Strobel, 56, of Los Gatos, Calif.

Mrs. Rose Shahbendarian suffered shock. Brody complained of possible back injuries and Martin Koumou, 20, of 2723 Cruger Avenue, New York City, received an injury of the upper left arm.

According to a report made by Deputy Sheriff's Ernest Longyear, Arthur Roland and Wesley O'Brien, all cars were traveling east on Route 28 when Brody slowed for traffic. His car was hit in the rear by Shahbendarian's automobile and the latter vehicle was struck in the rear by Strobel's car.

The sheriff's office said Strobel was charged with driving a car with inadequate brakes. The summons was returnable before Justice of the Peace Alton Boyce, Town of Hurley.

Batteries Stolen From CP Exhibit, For Hearing Aids

A theft of the "lowest type" was reported to local police yesterday afternoon.

Dr. H. L. Bibby, long an active leader in Ulster County Cerebral Palsy work, notified Sgt. Carl Janasiewicz at police headquarters yesterday afternoon that 18 large, and six small hearing aid batteries had been taken from a CP exhibition tent on the Ulster County Fair grounds, Forsyth Park, Monday. Another area, there, he said, had been splashed with tossed tomatoes.

Another report yesterday said a wheel and tire had been taken from the car of George Young, of Ruby, while it was parked on Pine Grove Avenue near Broadway. It was indicated that several boys are suspected.

Dorplan Man Killed

Issues Similar to Steel Strike

200,000 May Quit Jobs With Meat Processing in September

FOREST PARK, Pa. (AP)—A walkout of nearly 200,000 workers in the giant meat processing industry next month was threatened today on issues similar to those involved in the continuing steel strike.

Union officials said the industry's two major unions, the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and the Packinghouse Workers, have met much the same management wage freeze and other proposals for stockyard workers as were experienced in the steel dispute.

Concern Expressed

AFL-CIO leaders, meeting in summer session here, expressed concern that the steel strike is a symptom of what they consider a growing management refusal to give workers a share in expanding industry profits.

The International Union of Electrical Workers, voting a $100,000 donation to the steel strikers, said big business generally has decided to "wreck the hard-won gains of workers" and reverse the system of sharing profits with labor.

The two meat industry unions, after nearly a month of bargaining, have met an almost solid front of packer proposals to freeze present wage rates, averaging about $2.50 an hour.

In a further similarity to the steel bargaining picture, the packing unions say they also face company proposals to give employers a freer hand in achieving manpower and other economies.

Ask 15 Cents Boost

Like the steel strikers, the meat processing workers seek wage boosts of about 15 cents per hour. Members of the AFL-CIO Executive Council were expected to approve today a plan to mobilize all AFL-CIO unions behind the steel strike.

The plan includes a rally of all union officers at San Francisco on Sept. 18, as part of the AFL-CIO's biennial convention, in behalf of the steel strikers.

Admiral Halsey Funeral Today, Outfoxed Japan

WASHINGTON (AP)—The nation today buries one of its great naval heroes, Fleet Adm. William F. Halsey.

Final military tribute was prepared for the pugnacious "Bull" Halsey, whose 3rd Fleet outfoxed the Japanese Admiralty and sank the best of its fighting ships in World War II.

His body lay, with honor guard, in Washington National Cathedral. It was brought here Wednesday from Fishers Island, N.Y., where he died Sunday. The retired admiral was 76.

Gathering for the Cathedral services and the burial in Arlington National Cemetery this afternoon were the chief civilian and military leaders of the Defense Department, government officials, many personal friends and some of those who served with Halsey in the great days of the mighty Pacific campaigns.

A WINNER—Five-year-old Danny Slivka showed up with the broadest blossom and the widest smile at a sunflower contest in Cleveland, Ohio. Danny's flower measured 17½ inches across.

Negro Lawyer Is Rated Good Bet In Memphis Vote

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—Segregation forces were jittery today in an election that might send a Negro to city office.

For the first time in the history of this city of the Deep South, Negro candidates loomed large in two races—public works commissioner and juvenile judge.

Negro leaders prayed for rain, which could increase the Negro turnout by stopping cotton picking in surrounding areas. Many Memphis Negroes make daily trips to nearby fields during the picking season.

The polls opened at 8:30 a.m. in the 143 precincts and closed at 7:30 p.m. There were 187,541 registered voters, 57,109 of them Negroes.

In the crowded race for public works commissioner, Russell B. Sugarmon Jr., a Negro lawyer educated at Harvard, was given an almost even chance of victory. Sugarmon, 30, ran against four white candidates. His chances depend on his pulling a strong Negro bloc vote while his opponents split the white vote. But he claimed some white support.

The Rev. Ben L. Hooks, an attorney and preacher running for judge of juvenile court, urged Negroes to "miss those cotton trucks tomorrow and go vote."

Negroes have run for office here before but none ever came close to winning.

Honolulu Asks 3rd Loop Berth

NEW YORK (AP)—Honolulu has requested a franchise in the Continental League.

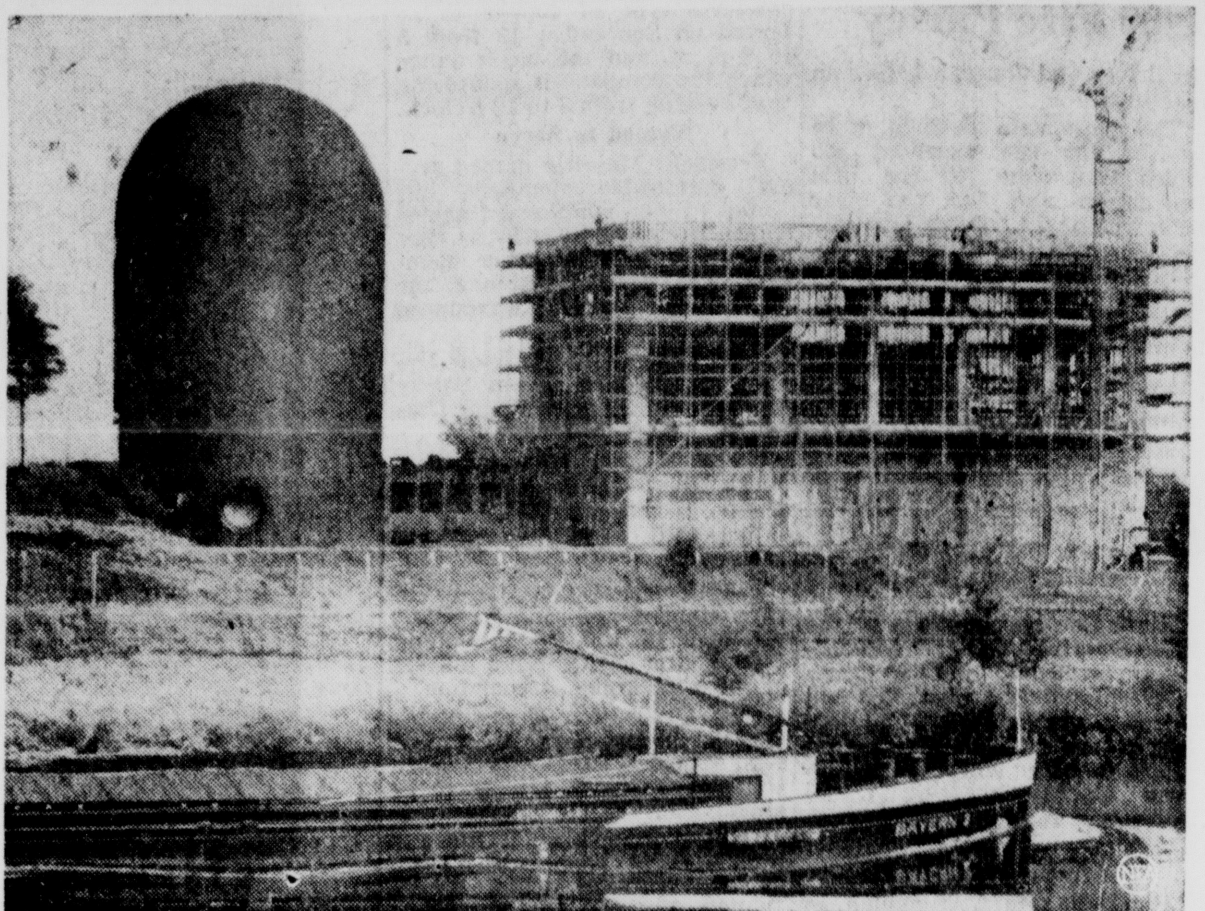

Branch Rickey, president of the embryo third major league, says he is not at liberty to give the names of the sponsors, but the committee on franchises has sent the Hawaiian group an application for membership.

"If the city meets our standards it will receive strong consideration," Rickey said. "Hawaii is an integral part of this country."

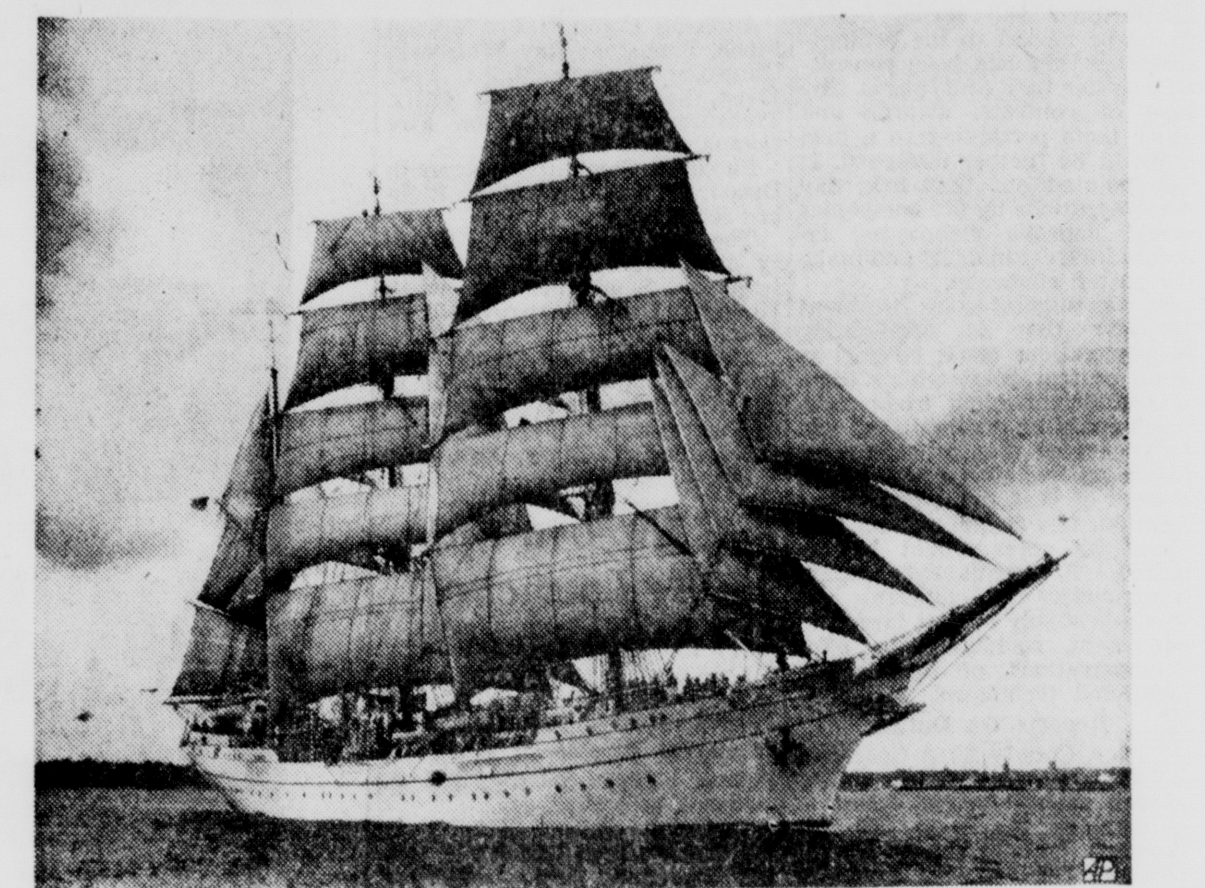

The franchise committee is made up of Jack Kent Cook of Toronto, Craig Cullinan of Houston and Robert Howsam of Denver.

Among the other teams being considered for membership, Rickey said, are Buffalo, Seattle, Miami, New Orleans, Dallas-Fort Worth, Atlanta, Montreal and San Juan, P. R.

New York City, Toronto, Minneapolis-St. Paul, Denver and Houston are the founding cities in the new league.

Fumbling Gunman Abandons Holdup

NEW YORK (AP)—A fumbling gunman abandoned a planned holdup of a $2,600 payroll after:

1. The intended victim told him "Get out of here, you bum."
2. The gunman's pistol refused to fire.
3. All the bullets fell out of the gun when he tried to fix it.
4. The victim seized a bag of feathers and beat the robber with it until the sack burst and showered the holdup man with bright green feathers.

The would-be bandit had approached factory Manager Louis Charatz Wednesday shortly after he returned to his millinery plant from a bank with the payroll.

The bandit, with feathers sticking to him, sprinted out of the plant after the comedy of errors. Police were looking for him today.

Army, Enlisted Scientists Feud Threatens Again

EDGEWOOD, Md. (AP) — The long-standing feud between the Army and its enlisted scientists threatened to break into the open again today.

Some 400 young enlisted scientific and professional personnel at the Army chemical center here were ordered to fall out at 1 p.m. — in civilian clothes.

The lineup was called to help civilian witnesses identify some of the 60 or so men who celebrated at a beer party here last Thursday night.

Military authorities said they received complaints that obscene songs and statements uncomplimentary about the Army emanated from the festivities.

Just 11 months ago a similar party resulted in the court-martial of 11 men, mostly college graduates with degrees in engineering, mathematics, or the natural sciences.

Elephant Charges Worshippers, Hot Coals Are Reason

KANDY, Ceylon (AP)—A madened temple elephant charged a crowd of 200,000 at a religious festival Wednesday night. Twenty persons were reported killed in the crush and thousands injured.

Several persons were reported missing. It was feared some had fallen or jumped into Kandy Lake nearby.

The elephant was one of more than 100 participating with dancers and drummers in an annual Buddhist pageant called Perahera.

The animal became infuriated when it stepped on burning coals which had dropped from a flaming torch.

It wheeled about and charged, and the crowd ran screaming in panic, seeking shelter in nearby buildings, atop walls and in trees.

Two mahouts clung to the elephant's tail and trunk. They finally stopped it and chained it to a lamppost. But the noise of the surging crowd set the beast off again and it broke loose, smashing

Mountain Moved By Quake, Then Water Wave Comes

BOZEMAN, Mont. (AP) — The mountain fell first—and then the water came.

That's the account of a California dentist and his friends who survived the Madison Canyon earthquake and avalanche below Hebgen Dam Monday night.

Dr. Reed Quesnell of Arcadia, Calif., gave the account when questioned concerning a theory that water spilling over the dam raced through the canyon and swept some campers away before the mountain collapsed.

"Not so," said Dr. Quesnell. "First came the earthquake. Then the mountain collapsed into the canyon. And after that came a wave of water. This wave is what hit and injured a number of those hurt in the disaster."

Dr. Quesnell, his wife, and two friends and their families — Sam Kuenig of Lakewood, Calif., and Ike Kuenig of La Puente, Calif., said they believed an unknown number of campers in the area were buried by the big slide.

"We have vacationed there every summer for 10 years," Dr. Quesnell said. "And every year there have been the same two trailers in the same place. They were there again this year, so close to the river they could fish from their doors. And those two trailers did not come out of the canyon when we were evacuated Wednesday. There undoubtedly are many others buried with them."

Mayfield Woman Killed in Orange Crash Wednesday

Mrs. Eileen Cox, 30, of Mayfield, was killed and her husband, Frederick Cox, 30, and their two children were critically injured Wednesday at 4:45 p. m. when the family car went out of control and overturned several times on the State Thruway about two miles south of Newburgh.

Thruway Trooper John Mackay stated the woman died instantly. Orange County Coroner Harvey Agnew conducted an investigation and gave a verdict of accidental death. Mrs. Cox suffered internal injuries.

Her husband's condition was described as serious. Also injured were the couple's daughter, Deborah, 10, and son, Frederick, 11.

Troopers said the car was traveling south when it swerved off the soft shoulder, veered back across the thruway jumping the dividing wall and then overturned four or five times.

Minors' Czar Irked by Snubs

Says Continental Ignores Minors

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — George Trautman, head of the minor leagues, today charged the newly organized Continental League with completely ignoring the minors in its efforts to gain major league status.

Trautman's accusation came after chiefs of top individual minor circuits said they would demand heavy damages, totaling around $8,000,000 from the proposed circuit for invasion of their territories.

"I keep reading about a number of our cities being considered for inclusion in this new league," said Trautman, "but never once have we been approached by these people. I think it would be a sort of courteous thing if we were considered. There have been numerous conferences but we've never been invited to attend any of them."

Willing to Cooperate

"We've never resisted any of our cities that desired to become major," he said. "But we've got a structure that must be preserved. I'm sure a man like Branch Rickey (president of the Continental League) is aware of this as well as I am, and he knows that any league affected must be consulted.

"After all, there are human beings and peoples' livelihoods they are dealing with. You don't just pick up baseball clubs as you would a bunch of bananas."

"Our leagues cannot be destroyed by a mere wave of the hand without being adequately compensated and getting other cities as replacements. We've got to find cities and towns, realign, get the players and we can't do it by waving a wand."

"We want to help this new league and we can but at the same time we don't want them to destroy us. All we want to do is survive."

Wilt Has Cage Coaches Crying

Levene Raps Goal Tending by Warrior Phenom

MONTICELLO (AP) — The basketball pros are crying over Wilt (The Stilt) Chamberlain already.

Red Auerbach, coach of the Boston Celtics, and Fuzzy Levene, New York Knicks' coach, saw a review of The Stilt Tuesday night. They didn't like what he saw.

Chamberlain, the $30,000 a year plus rookie of the Philadelphia Warriors, played at a mountain resort with some of the top players in the NBA in a benefit game for Maurice Stokes, disabled by a rare sickness. The Stilt scored 20 points and blocked more than a dozen shots by the opposition.

Scream Goal Tending
"We're going to have to stop him from goal tending," said Levene after watching the 7-foot-1 inch Chamberlain bat backfield goal attempts as if he was playing table tennis.

"I think there'll be a lot of arguments over him," said the New York coach. "He cannot stop a ball coming down into the basket. That's the rule."

Auerbach, who has a giant of his own in 6-10 Bill Russell, commented: "He's going to drive coaches to the nuthouse."

"He'll revolutionize the game," added Levene.

Chamberlain heard the comments and replied:

"They'll keep on yelling until the refs call a few bad blocks. Next thing they'll raise the baskets to 12 feet."

Clausi Pitches No-Hit Contest

Pete Clausi of the Langer Pharmacy Giants didn't yield a hit but the Mullers, Inc. Braves managed four runs in dropping a 13-4 decision in the Town of Ulster Little League.

Nine bases on balls and Giants' miscues enabled the Braves to avert a shutout at the expense of Clausi, who struck out four.

The winners managed only six hits off Fred de Temple and Bob Kent but were aided by 13 walks and assorted miscues.

Rod DeVeau, the Giants shortstop, clouted a home run. Stan Van Kleeck hit two singles.

Team Four, captained by Wes LeFevre of New Paltz won the championship of the recently completed Mohawk Twilight Golf League.

Fred Sierck won the trophy for scoring most points and president Bob Brearey beat Hank Schulte in a playoff for low gross honors. A buffet supper will be held in the near future to award prizes.

First round leaders of the 36-hole low net tournament are as follows: 1st flight, Bob Brearey, 33-3-30; second flight, Willet Porter, 43-9-34; 3rd flight, Ed Pedersen, 47-15-32.

SARATOGA SPRINGS, Aug. 20 — Chalking up the fastest victory of his career and his third in four starts at the Saratoga Raceway summer meeting, Vic Dale, owned by Delno R. Ellis of Kingston, won a $1,000 Class B race in a strong 2:04 tonight.

The five-year-old son of Frisco Dale was driven by Donnie Miller and Paid $4.10.

Big Hank Sauer Quits Baseball

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The playing days of another of baseball's great sluggers are over. Big Hank Sauer has hung up his glove without fanfare.

The 40-year-old outfielder retired Wednesday to make room for youth on the San Francisco Giants' roster. He immediately was given a coaching job.

"It's a tough thing to admit you're through, but the time has to come," Sauer said. "And the time is now for me. My reflexes are gone and I can't get around on a pitch like I should."

Sauer looked around the clubhouse after the Giants had dropped a 5-2 decision to the Milwaukee Braves and pointed to such stars as Willie Mays, Orlando Cepeda, Willie Kirkland and Jackie Brandt.

"This is the game for them," he said. "There isn't room for fellows like me. That's the reason I have to step out."

Sauer, whose 6-foot-4, 200-pound build belies his age, was relegated to a pinchhitting role by the Giants this season. He managed only one hit in 15 times at bat. That was a home run, No. 288 of his National League career.

Sauer was the league's Most Valuable Player in 1952 when he hit 37 homers and drove in 121 runs for the Chicago Cubs, and was voted to the All-Star team twice. He first came up to the majors with Cincinnati in 1941.

Mulloy-Talbert In Spotlight

BROOKLINE, Mass. (AP) — A pair of players who won the National Doubles tennis title 17 years ago held the center of attention in the 1959 edition of the championships Wednesday.

Gardnar Mulloy and Billy Talbert, now 45 and 41 respectively, won the title in 1942. Gardnar almost pulled off an upset of major proportions Wednesday against a high-ranking Australian duo while Talbert engineered a decision over a top English team.

Mulloy and Jack Frost forced Robert Mark and Rodney Laver, a couple of Australian Davis Cup players, back to the wall before age caught up with Mulloy.

The Australians, second-seeded among the foreign entrants in the U. S. Lawn Tennis Association's National Doubles tourney, finally won 12-10, 3-6, 5-7, 6-3, 6-4. Talbert teamed with John Lesch to defeat England's Tony Pickard and Robert Wilson, third ranked among the foreign teams, 6-4, 6-2, 7-5.

All other top teams, including America's Barry MacKay and Mike Franks, and Alex Olmedo and Earl Buchholz and Australia's Neale Fraser and Roy Emerson, won without difficulty.

Grand American Shoot Starts Friday

VANDALIA, Ohio (AP) — The 69th Grand American Trapshoot opens Friday for a nine-day stand. The first three days are just tuneups for some 40 national championships to be decided next week when 2,500 or more marksmen will fire a million and a half 12-gauge shotgun shells.

Biggest scrap on the agenda is billed for Friday, Aug. 28, when hundreds of U.S. sharpshooters will attempt to bring back to this country the Grand American Handicap title.

That crown, along with some $10,000 in purses and other loot, went to Canada last year when Emerson Clark of Preston, Ont., broke 99 of 100 from 20 yards to become the first invader to triumph.

Apostoli Sees Basilio-Fullmer Bout Real Brawl

By ALAN CLINE

Associated Press Sports Writer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Fred Apostoli, top middleweight 20 years ago, is certain the Gene Fullmer-Carmen Basilio Aug. 28 NBA middleweight title fight will be a donnybrook worthy of any championship.

He's also certain things can't be as confusing in the 160-pound division as they were when he wore at least a chunk of the crown in 1938-39.

"To this day I don't know what the title was," Apostoli said. "It was fouled up from the time Mickey Walker retired in 1931 until Tony Zale cleared it up by beating George Adams 10 years later."

Now the situation is again muddled. The National Boxing Assn. stripped Ray Robinson of the sword title and sanctioned the Basilio-Fullmer Cow Palace 15-rounder.

The winner will be recognized as champion in NBA territory, everywhere in the U.S. but New York and Massachusetts.

After watching Basilio and Fullmer, both former world champions in a non-disputed era, Apostoli enthusiastically predicted their fight would equal any midweight brawl.

He refused to pick a winner, but predicted a knockout within 10 rounds.

Poughkeepsie 9 Needs Only One Win for Pennant

Hoe-Bowls of Poughkeepsie, virtually cinched the New York-New Jersey Baseball League pennant last night, when they defeated the Kingston Braves, 3-1, in a spine tingling contest at Riverview Field.

The victory was the 11th in 12 games for the Bridge City tossers, who need only one more game to nail down the flag. Their only loss was to Kingston in the first meeting between the teams.

Fred Davis' squad suffered its third loss, but is assured of a second place finish.

Larry DeVita, Poughkeepsie's crack southpaw, limited the Braves to five hits and struck out five, but needed some luck to keep the Braves at bay.

Two Fatal Plays

Allan Webb, the Braves lead-off, doubled to left to open the contest, but was eventually thrown out at the plate on a grounder to the shortstop. He doubled deep to right center to launch the eighth, but was nipped trying for a triple on a relay from the right fielder and shortstop. These two hairline plays were a bad blow to Kingston's chances.

Don Musko scored Kingston's lone run in the fourth when Krause was hung up on an attempted steal long enough to permit Musko to sneak in from third base.

Trailing Bob Maines, 1-0, at the end of four innings, Poughkeepsie tied it in the fifth. Bob McKenna singled to left and advanced to second on an infield out. Schmalberger looped a pop fly to shallow center but Porky Veiria slipped going after the ball and it fell for a single, McKenna scoring.

Two out singles by Murphy behind a singleton by Carl Bates sent Poughkeepsie ahead, 2-1, in the sixth. Maines was relieved by Fred Vogel in the seventh when the Bowls tallied their final marker, when Schmalberger led off with a single, DeVita sacrificed and Bates singled to left.

Maines allowed 7 hits in the 6 1/2 innings he worked to get charged with his first defeat of the season. DeVita won his eighth in nine starts.

Kingston will conclude its 1959 schedule with a game at Stewart Air Force Base in Newburgh.

Columbus Jets In Second Place

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Occupants of the cellar a while back, the Columbus Jets today are tied for second place in the International League.

The Jets moved into a tie with Havana for the runner-up spot as they nipped Miami 5-4 Wednesday night while the Sugar Kings were losing to Richmond 7-3.

League-leading Buffalo retained its 6 1/2-game lead despite being four-hit by Don Johnson in a 6-1 Toronto triumph.

The Jets, sprung to an early lead by Bob Thorpe's three-run homer in the third inning, needed to score a run in the ninth without a hit to win it. The Marlins closed to within a run in the ninth on Leo Burke's two-run homer but with two on and two out, pinch-hitter Jose Valdivielso grounded out.

A six-run uprising in the fifth—highlighted by Fritz Brickell's grand slam—gave the Virginians' Bob Wiesler his 12th win. Yoyo Davalillo's two-run single in the fifth capped a three-run Havana rally.

Toronto backed Johnson's pitching with three homers, all two-run shots by Ron Henry, Jim King and Archie Wilson.

The Royals scored four runs in the first and fourth innings to build a seemingly insurmountable lead. But reliever Paul Lalanne had to survive Luke Easter's three-run homer in the ninth to win it.

Moore Wants Bout With Brown

Kayoes Bassey In 11th Round

By PATRICK MCNULTY

Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A title fight with Lightweight Champion Joe Brown may be in the works for World Featherweight Champion Davey Moore, who Wednesday night stopped Hogan (Kid) Bassey in 11 rounds.

Moore's manager, Willie Ketchum, said the Brown fight was fine with him "providing the money is right."

Moore, who bombed out Bassey, said he isn't trying to invade other divisions. But he added:

"Frankly, I'd like to meet (World Bantamweight Champion) Joe Beccerra for my featherweight championship. But, I'm in this business for the money and I'll fight anybody if the price is right."

Matchmaker George Parnassus, who masterminded the Moore-Bassey title fight, said a Moore-Brown battle for the lightweight title would be a natural.

A Moore-Becerra featherweight title scrap would be a natural too, especially in Los Angeles, where the large Mexican population idolizes the little 118-pound champ from Mexico. But Becerra is committed for an October rematch with Alphonse Halimi of France, from whom he won the title last month.

Bassey, who appeared at a press party with dark glasses hiding a swollen right eye and a bandage over a badly bruised right hand, said:

"This is not a decision I can make in a moment. I must think it over."

Sharp-shooting Moore, who took the title from Bassey last March, counter-punched Bassey into a tottering derelict at the end of the 10th round.

Bassey sprawled on his stool and refused to come out for the 11th round.

A crowd of 7,450 paid a gross gate of $47,100.40 to watch the scrap, which was televised nationally over the ABC network.

Can Spahn and Burdette Do It?

CHICAGO—(NEA)—The big news making the rounds in college football circles concerns the shakedown at Navy. Did Eddie Erdelatz really quit as the Middies' coach? . . . What was the payoff? . . . From St. Louis you hear that Stan Musial's troubles this year trace to a faulty spring training game . . . that never really got him in shape. . . .

Maybe Vice President Nixon doesn't belong on a sports page (though he's a confessed would-be sports writer) . . . but the political world has never had a better-versed sports fan . . . who can recite details of Duke football games he saw two decades ago . . . and was telling us in a private session at the football writers' meeting that "for everyday interest, I prefer baseball . . . but for the one big game, I'll take football." Nixon virtually managed to clinch a citation for his old Whittier College coach, Chief Newman, by the writers next year. . . .

Ask Bill Veek what's the secret of the Chicago White Sox and he'll tell you: "Our multiple offense — hit batsman, base on balls, wild pitch, stolen base and balk." . . .

TV's Jim Garner (Bret Maverick), who carries a slight spike wound (in a celebrities' game) to prove he's a baseball aficionado, was comparing notes with Mickey Mantle: "Understand you're an Okie, too, Mickey. . . like me." (Garner's from Oklahoma City). "Well," continued Maverick, "you got New York. . . I got California. . . us Okies got the whole country between us." . . .

A Notre Dame-Southern California feud in the making because of the circumstances under which Don Doll was spirited away from the Trojans' coaching staff . . . to teach the Irish defense . . .

Lindsay Nelson, who pooh-poohs the entire Leo Durocher-White Sox tieup, got a telephone call from his Game-of-the-Week telecasting mate the morning the rumor broke into print. . . "Got a new job for you, pardner," began Leo. "You're my third base coach." . . . But Leo, who slyly engaged the story, promptly forgot about it after wife Elaine got through chewing him out. . . .

Tip on Ted Williams future is that he's earnestly looking for a broadcasting job . . . but won't do play-by-play — he wants to be strictly a "batting analyst." . . .

Most pathetic football player of the not-yet-started season has to be Elbert Dubenion of little Bluffton College, a zippy halfback drafted by the Browns who signed first with Regina because "they sweet-talked me, said the pros would never want me." . . . Then went to the All-Star camp as solace after quitting Canada and got hurt. . . . and now laments, "My career may be over before it started." . . . He won't play in Canada . . . and can't for the Browns.

If baseball really wanted to look into that Southern Association betting scandal the story wouldn't end there . . . with just the two men nabbed. . . .

When he had them in the All-Star camp, Otto Graham stuck Giant rookies Buddy Dial and Lee Grosscup with names that should stick. . . . Dial was "Elvis" for his singing ambitions. . . . Grosscup was "Ernest Hemingway" because he wants to write. . . . Did ja know that the Los Angeles Rams pursued the Chicago Cardinals for three years before they wooed away Ollie Matson?

Biggest rap against Fred Haney this year is his failure to console and nurse his young hurlers. . . . like Carlton Willey and Juan Pizarro . . . seldom talks to them. . . .

You gotta give Casey Stengel credit . . . even when he's losing he's an "I-man." . . . "I let Cleveland lick me . . . and Detroit and Chicago like me, too." . . . An All-Star Game by-play that lingers: Mickey Mantle and Al Kaline, two of baseball's premier outfielders, warming up together before the game—throwing hard-to-catch knuckleballs at each other. . . .

Between you'n me, the Cleveland Browns this year not only inherited a couple of the better college linemen in the nation . . . but their mixed-up marital problems as well. . . .

Tigers Even National Little League Playoffs

Trounce Indians 11-3 in 4 Frames

Canfield Supply Tigers evened the National Little League championship series Wednesday by trouncing the Shults Paint Indians, 11 to 3, to set the stage for the rubber contest.

The Tigers actually scored 18 runs, erupting for seven in the top of the fifth, but darkness halted the game at this point and the runs were wiped off the books. However, the Tigers felt they had gained a measure of revenge for the 16-1 clobbering they absorbed the day before.

Vince Fisher of the Indians connected for his fourth home run of the series, hitting a solo blast in the first inning. Dick Schabot powered a two-run homer and Jim Williams had a solo job.

Schabot, who also had a single, struck out 10 batters and walked five in the four-inning contest, giving only three hits. The Tigers picked up seven safeties off Jim Williams, who fanned six.

Bud Bunt and Chip Grover of the Tigers connected for a double and single each for the Tigers.

Athletics Purchase

Jablonski From Cards

KANSAS CITY Y(AP)—The Kansas City Athletics Wednesday night bought third baseman Ray Jablonski from the St. Louis Cardinals and infielder outfielder Joe Morgan from Louisville of the American Assn.

To make room for the pair, the A's sold infielder Ray Boone to Milwaukee and infielder Preston Ward to Louisville, a Milwaukee

Lew Stops Giants On Six-Hitter

By ED WILKS

Associated Press Sports Writer
Lew Burdette's done his share. Now can Warren Spahn return Milwaukee's two aces to normalcy?

It was Burdette and Spahn, winning back-to-back, who put the Braves in command through the first half of the season. But they haven't been able to win in tandem more than two weeks and Milwaukee has skidded from first to third in the National League race.

Burdette, the lean right-hander, got half of the comeback job done Wednesday night, winning his 17th, tops in the majors, with a six-hitter that beat San Francisco 5-2 and pushed the Braves within three games of the first place Giants.

Now Spahn, working with a day's rest after a losing three-inning relief job as Milwaukee dropped two of three to Los Angeles, is to come back as a starter in the finish of the two-game series tonight.

Burdette's victory also closed the Braves within a game of third place Los Angeles. The Dodgers were held two games back of the Giants when Cincinnati exploded a seven-run eighth inning for a 9-4 victory.

Pittsburgh defeated St. Louis 4-2 after the Cards had won the completion of a July 12 suspended game 8-6 in 10 innings. Philadelphia defeated the Chicago Cubs 4-1 in the opener of a two-night pair, then played a 7-7 tie stopped after 12 innings by curfew.

Crandall Slams 15th

A fifth-inning home run by Del Crandall, his 15th, cracked a 1-1 tie for the Braves and Burdette's single then brought home the clincher in a two-run seventh. Jack Sanford (12-10) was the loser.

The Dodgers blew a 3-0 lead built with Chuck Essegian's first homer in the second. The Reds scored two in the fourth, then beat Sandy Koufax (6-4) when a two-run pinch single by Jerry Lynch put them ahead in the eighth. Jim Brosnan (7-5), was the winner.

Four singles gave the Cards two runs in the 10th inning of the suspended game against Bob Porterfield (0-2). Lindy McDaniel (13-11) won it. The Pirates won the regularly scheduled game on Smokey Burgess' RBI single in a two-run sixth after the Cards had taken a 2-0 lead against Vern Law (14-7). Rookie Bob Gibson (1-2) lost it.

Earl Averill's home run cracked a 6-6 tie for the Cubs in the 12th, but the Phils deadlocked it again on Harry Hanebrink's triple before the curfew sounded. The Phils won the opener on a three-hitter by Gene Conley (12-7) and a three-run sixth, against Glen Hobbie (12-10).

Allentown Sox Win Over Albany

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Jim Schandavel pitched a two-hit shutout; Bob Boyer had a grand slam home run — and the Allentown Red Sox smiled.

Schandavel's shutout, his first Eastern League victory this year, gave Lancaster a 2-0 victory Wednesday night over second-place Springfield. Boyer's grand slammer helped York to a 10-4 victory over first-place Williamsport.

Third-place Allentown beat Albany 9-6 to move to within three games of the Grays and a game and a half of the Giants.

Binghamton defeated Reading 4-2. Allentown scored all its runs in the first three innings. York packaged all its runs into two innings, the second and the sixth, while Chuck Symeon held the Grays to seven hits. Binghamton won on three unearned runs and the ability of Don Thompson to shut off several Indian scoring attempts.

New Racing Head Earned Schooling On Police Force

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—Robert A. Glasser, chairman of the new State Harness Racing Commission, worked his way through law school as a policeman.

He received his law degree nine years ago, became the youngest precinct captain in Buffalo and was elected sheriff of Erie County four years ago on the Republican ticket.

Glasser, a tall, solidly built man with thick brown hair, was born 43 years ago last July 26 in Buffalo. He went to Canisius College here and then to the University of Buffalo Law School.

He is quick with a warm smile but deadly serious about his work. As sheriff he is most proud of his county-wide communications system, mobile crime lab, and auxiliary deputies who are skindivers, boaters and horseback riders.

About his appointment today he said, "The commission's work will be very important, especially inasmuch as it affects nearly everyone in the state who pays taxes as well as those who also watch the races as spectators."

He said he hasn't yet talked to Gov. Rockefeller about the duties and aims of the commission, but hopes to do so soon.

His three-man commission supplants harness "czar" George P. Monaghan, who had repeatedly rejected Rockefeller's request that he resign.

"I know Monaghan's reputation as an extremely capable man," Glasser said, "but I didn't follow with any great interest his difficulties, so I wouldn't want to say anything about that."

He said he hoped the new job, which pays $20,000 plus $3,000 in

Irish Lancer Saratoga Winner

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y. (AP) — Jumpers battle today in the wide-open Promise Hurdle at Saratoga, a change of pace after Pebblebrook Farm's Irish Lancer won the Saratoga Special by a nose.

Irish Lancer edged C. V. Whitney's Tampion Wednesday in the 57th running of the Special for 2-year-olds. The race was worth $60,500 and, for the first time, the second, third and fourth horses shared in the purse. The Special had been a winner-take-all event.

Four entries in a field of 12 confuse the $12,000 Promise, with the coupling Management and Mighty Lea probable favorites.

The Promise is for 3-year-olds over 1½ miles. Top weighted was F. E. Dixon Jr.'s Air Delight at 15. Air Delight was paired with Be A Honey.

Other strong contenders were the Wickes entry of After Supper and Vendetta and the Stitzer-Char-kitt entry of Rhythum Master, Brannagh and Queen Command.

In the Special, Irish Lancer, coupled in the betting with Greek Page, paid $7.70, $3.30 and $2.80. Tampion returned $3.30 and $2.60 for place while Udaipur was $3.90 for show.

Irish Lancer covered the 6 furlongs in 1:12.

Take Five ($20.50) and Shalimar ($4.10) combined for a $107.40 daily double.

With only seven days left in the season, the Braves kept their 9½-game lead over Geneva by beating Auburn 8-3 Wednesday night. Geneva beat Elm by the same score.

Wellsville's Frank Johnson scattered eight Auburn hits. George McCafferty smacked a three-run homer and Mario Diaz had a two-run double for the Braves.

At Geneva, pitcher Larry Dovel was the winner. He cleared the bases in the seventh with a double. He struck out 12 and gave up five hits.

Batavia beat Corning 6-4 with the help of two RBI by Johnny Parker. Bill Hamel homered for Corning.

Elmira walloped Olean 11-4. The Pioneers' five runs in the eighth were all unearned. Bob Carmo hit a two-run homer for Elmira.

Indians Junk Losing Streak

Run Forced In Beats Washington

By ED WILKS

A right reluctant bunch of pennant contenders, these Cleveland Indians. They lose four in a row, slowing leads in three of them, and almost make it five—getting the cushion they needed on a bases-loaded walk.

Cleveland junked the slump with a 5-4 decision over last place Washington Wednesday night, moving within 3½ games of Chicago in the American League race after the White Sox had been spilled 3-1 by Baltimore in an afternoon game.

The Indians did some blowing in this one, too, after building a 4-1 lead on homers by Woody Held and Jim Baxes and making it 5-1 when reliever Camilo Pascual gave up a fourth-inning triple to Vic Power then walked three in a row.

New York came from five runs back and beat Detroit 10-5. Kansas City beat Boston 6-3.

The Chicago Cubs and Philadelphia played a 7-7, 12-inning curfewed tie after the Phils took the opener of the two-night pair 4-1.

St. Louis beat Pittsburgh 8-6 in 10½ innings in the completion of a July 12 suspended game, but the Blues won the regularly scheduled game 4-2.

Rookie Larry Locke saved it for the Indians and Cal McLish (15-6), coming on with none out in the eighth after the Nats had scored three runs on Bob Allison's 28th homer and Harmon Killebrew's 37th.

Held's 22nd home run broke a 1-1 tie for the Indians in the second inning against loser Bill Fischer (8-9).

Baltimore beat the White Sox and Bob Shaw (12-4) on Bob Boyd's two-run single with two out in the first. Billy O'Dell (7-10) was the winner.

Frank Lary (15-8), who had won seven in a row from the Yankees since July of last year, was chased in a four-run fifth. Marv Throneberry and Hector Lopez hammered two-run homers for the Yankees while Whitey Ford (13-6) won his fifth in a row with 5 2/3 innings of shutout relief. The Tigers scored their five against Eli Garba and Bob Turley.

Bud Daley, (15-7) beat the Red Sox with a four-hitter giving up Dick Gernert's 10th home run and Jackie Jensen's 25th. Frank Sullivan (7-8) was the loser.

Drive for Funds Set by National

The National Little League boys and volunteer workers will start the second annual "Home Run Day" drive Saturday at 10 a. m. in a house to house canvas in wards 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9 in an effort to raise funds for its park improvement fund.

In launching the drive, John Spada, league president pointed out that the league sponsors 140 boys in its program and this entails a considerable amount of money in the course of a year for upkeep, etc.

"This drive is of utmost importance to us," said Spada, "and will enable us to keep our head above water and insure continuation of the little league program."

SEBRING, Fla. (NEA) — The Grand Prix of the United States at Sebring, Dec. 12, will be the final European-type automobile race of the season.

Guy Admits He Choked Up — Lost

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — One of California's finest amateur golfers today made the admission from which nearly all athletes recoil in horror:

"I just choked up," said Fred Brown of Los Angeles. "There's no other way to explain it. I guess I got the shakes."

Brown was still alive as a contender today in the second round of the Trans-Mississippi tournament despite an outlandish blowup that saw him lose his lead after winning the first six holes of a scheduled 18-hole match.

The player who nearly spun a golfing miracle was Frank James, a 20-year-old Iowan. He got the match tied on the 18th hole, but bowed out on the 21st when Brown, among the top amateurs in California, tapped in an eight-foot putt for a birdie.

In contrast to Brown, defending champion Jack Nicklaus of Columbus, Ohio, and his fellow Walker Cupper, Deane Beman, Silver Spring, Md., the British Amateur champion, walked an easy path.

Nicklaus played 1-under-par golf at Woodhill Course to beat Larry Dahl of Minneapolis, 3 and 2. Beman hugged par in walloping Dick Howell of Minneapolis 6 and 5.

The 32 survivors will be cut to eight after two rounds today.

Air Force Hopes To Snare Capsule In Pacific Today

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE

BASE, Calif. (AP)—From out of the vast Pacific heavens, a small capsule dangling from a parachute was expected to drop slowly toward the ocean today.

And waiting in Hawaii was a team of fliers with a seemingly impossible assignment—to go out and try to catch it before it hit the water.

Goes Up Wednesday

The capsule went aloft Wednesday, fixed in the nose of the Discoverer VI satellite, which is flashing around the earth once every 95 minutes in an egg-shaped, north-south orbit.

This afternoon, 26 hours after the launching, the capsule was to be kicked loose from the 19-foot satellite.

And, for the second time in less than a week, a squadron of Air Force C-119 Flying Boxcars was set to take off from Hawaii and try to execute an almost incredible catch. Each plane was equipped with a recovery net—a trapeze-like affair.

The project is aimed at solving the re-entry problem—how to get a man in space and, once he's there, get him back.

Overwhelming Odds

Although the odds against success seem overwhelming, the Air Force hoped to have more than the highly remote chance of sighting the capsule during its descent. The capsule was equipped with a radio which was supposed to send signals, to give the recovery team an idea of its whereabouts.

Such a recovery was planned following the successful launching of Discoverer V last week. But the radio in the falling capsule evidently broke down. Nobody got a signal from it. The capsule, presumably, tumbled into the sea.

Discoverer VI is expected to remain in orbit at least a month. It comes within 138 miles of earth at its closest approach and goes as far out as 537 miles.

Wasp Recording Among Data at Blast Inquiry

QUONSET POINT, R.I. (AP)—

An unusual tape recording of the explosion and fire which killed two men and injured 28 aboard the aircraft carrier Wasp is among the evidence being studied today by a Navy investigation board.

The sound of the blast and the spontaneous reaction of the men was recorded because a tape-recorder microphone had been opened to pick up the voices of crabbage-playing officers.

On Maneuvers

The Wasp was on antisubmarine maneuvers 250 miles off the Virginia coast when the mishap occurred Tuesday.

Lt. (j.g.) Jim Frank Hagen of Marianna, Fla., perished when trapped in the helicopter whose engine exploded while he was testing it in a hangar aboard the Wasp.

Aviation Apprentice Donald H. Trask of Keene, N.H., whose body was found at the bottom of a plane elevator, apparently was asphyxiated.

None of the injured was considered in a serious condition. Sources at this naval base said the damage to the Wasp might exceed five million dollars.

Rear Adm. Robert Stroh, commander of Carrier Division 14, said the helicopter engine "ran away and exploded while it was being tested by a qualified pilot."

Runaways Not Uncommon

He said runaway engines are not uncommon in flight and the governors fail to function properly. But he said he never heard of a runaway engine under hangar-deck testing conditions.

Navy men explained that governors are mounted on helicopter engines to regulate their speed but that under some circumstances—more commonly under the stress of flight conditions—they may function badly.

Officers were playing crabbage near the deck hangar. Lt. Patrick Harney of Robinsdale, Minn., turned on a tape recorder as a joke. He got two minutes of recording of the disaster, including the explosion that started the fire.

Weather Pattern Quite Familiar

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The nation's weather appeared stuck in its familiar pattern of the past couple of weeks today. It was fairly pleasant in western sections, hot and humid in most of the eastern half of the country.

Cool air spread from the far Northwest across northern states into parts of the Dakotas. It was expected to move across the Dakotas and into western parts of Nebraska, bringing welcome relief to areas hit by temperatures of above 100 degrees the past two days. Readings in the cool belt were a mixture of 50s and 60s.

But east of the cool air, it was warm and humid in most sections. An exception was the region from New England southward through Pennsylvania and West Virginia where temperatures were in the pleasant 60s most of the night.

Fair weather has indicated in the far southeast and the northern half of the Atlantic Coast states. Partly cloudy to cloudy conditions, with scattered thundershowers, were in prospect for other parts of the country.

Penknife, Blade Used to Remove Hook From Eye

SEABRIGHT, N. J. (AP) — A

Hyde Park, N. Y., schoolteacher had a fish hook removed from his eye on the beach by doctors using only a pen knife and a razor blade and with only a flashlight for illumination Wednesday.

The teacher is Herbert S. Martin, whose eye was cut by the heavy hook while he was casting off the jetty at Sandlass Beach. Two doctors decided he could not be moved without endangering his eye, so they decided to remove the hook right on the beach, using a flashlight to light the area.

The ordeal over, Drs. James F. Clark and Merritt London of Red Bank announced they expected no damage to the eye.

Batista Leaves DR for Portugal

CIUDAD TRUJILLO, Dominican Republic (AP) — Fulgencio

Batista was on his way today to a new home in exile in Portugal's Madeira Islands, where the climate is mild, the wine sweet and the tensions of his native Caribbean thousands of miles away.

Immigration officials said the ex-dictator of Cuba took off in a special plane for Portugal Wednesday night, within 24 hours after Washington squelched any hopes he had of gaining admittance to the United States.

Batista has been an exile in the Dominican Republic since fleeing Cuba last New Year's Day to escape the revolutionary forces of Fidel Castro.

There were 17 members of the Batista party, which flew first to Lisbon on the way to Madeira. The island group is about 400 miles west of Morocco, in the eastern Atlantic. Sources in Ciudad Trujillo said Portugal had granted the Cubans political asylum.

Man Sues Gotham For Million in False Arrest Case

NEW YORK (AP)—A Brooklyn man—mistaken for a missing husband in an abandonment case—is claiming a million dollars damages from New York City on the ground of false arrest.

The claim was filed Wednesday in the city comptroller's office by counsel for Seymour Kroll.

The city has 30 days to settle or reject the claim. If it is rejected, Kroll can sue in State Supreme Court.

Kroll's lawyer, Irving M. Berg, summarized the case this way: Kroll was arrested at his home by New York City detectives Aug. 9 on a fugitive warrant for a Seymour Kroll who had abandoned his wife and four children in Utica. The warrant had been obtained by Utica police. Kroll was held in jail overnight.

Last Friday, Mrs. Seymour Kroll of Utica faced the Brooklyn Seymour Kroll in felony court and said he was not her missing husband. The charge against Kroll was dismissed.

Berg's law firm said today a damage claim also would be pressed against Oneida County, in which Utica is located, and the Utica police department.

The amount of damage to be sought there was not specified but likely will be the same as asked in New York City—a million dollars, it was said.

The upstate action is expected to be initiated soon but the exact time is uncertain.
